Miss Jean Hughes,

LODGE,
SIDMOUTH.

Dear Miss Hughes,

Thank you very much for sending me the prospectus of the London School of Journalism. I was very glad to hear that you had a useful talk with the Director and that they really seem helpful.

I am quite sure that your best plan is to see whether the Exeter editors can give you any part time work as soon as you can do shorthand and typing, or get it simultaneously with learning if possible.

As far as the course is concerned, I should have thought that on the enrolment form all sections were probably ruled out for you except the one called "full journalism" and this is just the one which is not elaborated in the publication called "Writing for the press". On balance I should think you might find this one useful; if it gives you useful contacts you would soon earn the £10 advanced payment and the ten guineas which they ask for in instalments.

Wishing you all success.

Yours sincerely,

Dorothy Woodman

Secretary.
