Dear Miss Solomon,

So the great fight is just about to begin. I feel like a war-horse with the trumpets blowing and have been looking for this day for many months past! Everything is in our favour at the present time except the fact that there is such an overlapping in dates with the municipal elections, but this can be overcome if we have redoubled efforts on the part of everyone concerned. I know well that I can count upon this from you and I do not need to ask you to leave no stone unturned between now and the date of the poll to obtain a victory.

You will know best how to get to work and Miss Key Jones has everything in hand for a successful contest. I am full of hope and believe there ought to be no question as to the result.

Yours sincerely,

F. W. Pethick Lawrence.
