Dear Madam,

I venture, on behalf of a Committee of the Convocation of Canterbury, to ask if you could be so very kind as to answer the enclosed questions?

The Committee would be very grateful for your kind help.

If any points occur to you which these Questions do not reach — there are probably many

I hope you will also deal with them.

I remain,
Yours very faithfully,
C. Campbell.
