

ROCKSTONE HOUSE,

PINNER.

Dear Comrade and friend -

I did not like to write to you before as I heard how ill you were after your abominable treatment, and I felt it was a shame to trouble you with letters, but now I feel I must send just a line to express the admiration we all feel for your magnificent courage. Your name will go down in history, and I am very proud to think I once shared prison with such a brave woman.

All the members of your local Union here are most indignant at the brutality of the Government, and I do think your case ought especially to be made Public, but that is the difficulty with this wretched boycott.

Trusting you will soon regain strength and assuring you of our love and honour from my husband, myself, and all our members,

Yr. affect^{te} Comrade & friend

Mie Gerrits.
