Dear Mr Swan.

I very much regret that I am unable to comply with the request
contained in your letter that I should take the chair at the annual meeting recently made some of the London Society remarks on the for teaching the subject, I have Blind to read. I had to decline is always very many requests trying to me to read similar to yours.

about the blind. With many thanks and as I have for your good wishes,

believe me

Yours very truly
