Dear Miss Newcombe

I shall be delighted to help you on Dec: 14, on the 7th I have an engagement - If you really would like Mrs Green, you shall have her, I do ~~do~~ see that she has an appropriate tendency, though she is well known, most "writers" relate her experiences. I wish I could introduce some Suffrage Suggestion into my landlady, I will see what I can do, but my ideas are strangely sparse on the subject. I cannot recall for Miss Brickmeyer as I expect to be in Cornwall for the whole of February. But if she knew that I belonged to the Actresses League, she would probably be relieved! I am very sorry that I do not see my way to calling upon you at present for I am such a busy person. Will you forgive me, & let me know in writing if you have any suggestion to make. I expect to go home on Thursday. May I ask you to add my initials when addressing me?

Yours in haste

Louise Fernald Clark
