27th. Feb. 1907.

Dear Mrs Fawcett,

Many thanks for the cheque enclosed; receipt has been sent to Miss Alice Clark, and literature to Mrs Mess.

I am quite prepared to go and see the Secretary of the Primrose League, but before doing so, I should like to be furnished with further particulars if possible, with regard to what has been done. Could I, for instance, be given the name of the lady who stated that she was making use of the Primrose League organization? It is no use my making any complaint unless I have proof that such action has been taken. You will probably be able to tell me whether Mrs Mess would be willing to give me the name of the lady whom she mentions.

I will write to Lady Knightley and ask her if she will report the matter; her action would have far more effect than mine. It will, however, give me great pleasure to see the Secretary of the Head Office of the Primrose League and give him a piece of my mind.

Yours very sincerely,
