WHITNEY COURT.
WHITNEY ON WYE.

July 16. 02.

Dear Mr. Newcombe,

Your letter followed me down here. I have much travelling & lecturing work before me, & shall not ^{be} available in town until October. I am sorry, as I should have been pleased to meet you, & we should be glad of your co-operation in the great religious union we are trying to aid.

My colleague, Mr. J. R. S.
Need, lives at 59 Cheyne
Court, & I will ask him to call on you on his return to town.

Sincerely,

Annie Besant
