

Many of the troubles of this world are due to the fact that we have lost our best, who to-day would be among our leaders. If the dead could come back to life to-day there would be no war. They would never let the younger generation taste what they did.

—the Prime Minister (Mr. Stanley Baldwin) in Westminster Hall, July 29, 1936.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS UNION
15 GROSVENOR CRESCENT, LONDON, S.W. 1