

THE RULE OF THE ROAD

In the slow, old world, traffic controls were not needed - and nations went their way without much risk.

Today, the crowded nations, like the high speed traffic, need control to avoid a smash.

To provide such control and push the world along to better things is the task of the

LEAGUE OF NATIONS