Description of Street	A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H
very dirty street - frequent epidemics - 3 parts of people in stone yard or helped by charity.		55	10
very poor property of people - a few genl. shops.		28	12		7
mixed - mostly poor		86	95		95
Light blue - Coster & others
Very poor, migratory - much distress in winter		37	120		50 road looks poorer than Diamond St. Light blue is correct - the appearance of the houses suggests the idea that some are low class butchers.
laborers & wagers - a bar, vicious, drunken lot - Wives support fam. in many cases - the leisure class B. P.H. does a roving trade		42	122	40	45

Wells St to Peckham Grove park is pink to red

A distinctly poor, migratory set of people. Peckham is known as a refuge for the failures in all ranks of society. Rents are very cheap - a nice 5r. house, with back garden, for 8/- a week in dec. streets (as about Eastden St). The building & printing trades are largely represented.

Rev. Chapman (S.C.C.) of St Paul's, Lorrimore Square.

Friday, Oct 17/90.

Interview with Clergy &amp; Visitors

School Board Visitors Figures. See pages 7-9 &amp; 23-25.

Called at the Vicarage at 5 p.m. The vicar Rev. C.H. Simpkinson, his curate and four lady visitors, (deaconess) had gathered.

The streets were gone over in details
first and afterward each of the ladies
gave particulars of portions of streets
from notes they had made. The general opinion was that the map was too highly coloured.

Surrey Gardens estate some thought should be LtB. instead of purple but subsequently agreed that it was right
altho' it was not so good as St Paul's Road. The whole of the estate however they would make the same; e.g.

Delverton Road & Manor Place should be

Description of Street

purple instead of pink. Borritt Road, west side should be purple; while ~~right~~ east side they were agreed was right. This seemed feasible as the houses on west are exactly like those of the estate, while the east is models.

Fewrose St. they thought should be purple but afterwards limited the poor to the part near Walworth Road.

Lorrimore Square. South & West sides are red & north only pink. All maintain that there are no servants-lodginghouses.
As Vicarage faces these houses, their opinion
is probably correct.

Finchley & Fleming Roads. No servants
except a "scrubby" girl here and there.
Unanimous that there should be no
red. Finchley Road is the better of the two but not red line.

Lorrimore Road. East part is poor &
west should not be more than pink.

Sutherland Square	part is poorer - terrace facing railway as poor as St Paul's Road - middle part should be purple.
Charlotte Place	thought should be poorer.
Olney St.	Part near Walworth Rd is poor but description correct on the whole.
Alpha Sq.	should only be pink. See detailed notes - page.
Lorrimore St	should be purple.
Hill Street	should be purple - only a part (west) is equal to Beresford St. East part poorer than St Paul's Road.
Draco Road	like Lorrimore Street.
Doddington Grove	Pink to Red - better than we have it.
Princes St.	There is a large lodging house here. Street should be as poor as Graham St, which is marked S.B.

Interview with Visitors attached to St Bartholomew's, Credon Road, Rotherhithe.

I called at the Vicarage and met the vicar, Rev H. Wells. He is a robust, broad shouldered man; slightly above the middle height; with a fair, full face such as we associate with the typical Englishman. He has worked this church up from a Mission and his efforts have been appreciated by the people, as is shown by two testimonials in his hall with quite long lists of signatures, while in the dining room was a clock with an inscription. W.W. put on his hat & walked with me to a house in the <sup>Verney</sup> ~~Ederton~~ Road & there we saw Mrs Doughty, the visitor who has the Delaford Road district. She is evidently very well off. A luxcom well-dressed dame, apparently in the forties, her parlours, with folding doors removed, formed a large room which was well furnished. We had a general discussion as to the map & both agreed that all the block east of Credon Road should be pink. ~~Ilderton Road~~ <sup>Verney Road</sup> varies greatly, the end near Ilderton Road (in which Mrs D. house is situate) being well-to-do. She did not know a single poor person there..

The portion just beyond Credon Road becomes poorer & might be purple, while close to Barkworth Road it is Dark Blue.

In taking particulars of the street, I noticed that Mr Wells had a good knowledge of the people: occasionally he would add remarks respecting the family under discussion, so that the notes represent the opinion of Vicar & visitor. After we had completed the part of Delaford Road we went to Mrs Desborough's Bolina Road, Cliftonville. This ~~lady~~ lady lived on the upper floor; she had just come in with her baby when we arrived. She is a tall, thin, nervous woman, & her home was neat but poorly furnished. She had a good knowledge of Verney Road & gave the information entirely from memory.

Interview with Deaconess Army
in connection with the Wilberforce
Mission, Newington. (Rev C. E. Chittow)
(Schoolboard Officer's Notes. pages 15-16)

After taking Mrs Gilmore's account of Orville Road (see West Lambeth book),
she told me that the deaconess connected with the Wilberforce Mission was in the house & afterwards introduced me to her. She told me that she had not been on the district long and only visited on the part of the parish west of Newington Butts. She gave me the following particulars respecting the streets.

Longville Road. Great number of boot-makers and woman, who take boot-
work from Rabbits.

St Gabriel's Street. is the worst street & the part facing the church is the worst part of the street. Some of the people profess to be actors. In some of the houses, there are 4 and 5 families. Three families seem the general rule. Nos 6 & 8. are very bad houses. The Deaconess holds a cottage meeting at No 20; a man lends his room for the purpose.

Dante Road. is much better than Holyoak Road. One old lady keeps a servant. In the smaller houses there ~~are~~ are 3 families.

As an example of the difficulties of estimating the character of these streets,
she said that at No 51 Dante Road, there are 4 families. In one of these, she noticed some extravagance in cooking & the woman excused herself by saying that she had £3 a week for housekeeping and never thought of saving more than 2/-.

In both Holyoak & Dante Road,
they should earn more than £1 a week; only 3 or 4 earn less.

Dante Rd is almost as good as Crampden St.

(Nov 7)
Subsequently, Mr Booth says Rev C. E. Chettoe at the Mission House. His notes were as follows:-

St Gabriel's Street - just as poor as Clock Passage, Broom Place &c.

Brook St. south side also should be D. blue.
Hampton St. } North sides of these Steedman St } streets are poor.

Crampton St. both sides are poor, with some mixture, except from Amelia St to Manor Place, which is well off.

Amelia St. } Right as purple, but no & Manor Pl. } poorer than Crampton St. &c.

Churchyard Row. Poor lodgers; quite as poor, though looking decent.

On November 20th, I called on Mr C. by appointment. When he found that detailed particulars of the streets were wanted, he said that he should prefer to consult his curate & deaconess. He discussed the district & finally Mr C. agreed to send us particulars of a parts of Dante Road and a part of Clock Passage.

He told me that he had tried numerous expedients to win the rough lads, who develop into labourers but with little success. Clubs, social evenings, etc. had been tried & while he had got large numbers together at times, they were always up to larks whenever opportunity presented itself; blowing down gaspipes, throwing chairs about, writing on walls etc; and even went to the extent of singing filthy choruses when he was out of the room.

(See notes of Mr Booth's interview on

School Board Officers information on pages 32-40 of the same book.)

Mr Carrington is a Broad churchman; a broad-shouldered burly man with a keen sense of humour; evidently on good terms with himself & everybody else.

He traverses our view of the district ~~entirely~~ entirely; says it is almost if not quite as poor as Mr Dodge's (St Stephens Southwark). He knows both. He also told me that Mr Mullett, the schoolboard

He does not believe in Schoolboard visitors

and especially disbelieves the man in his own district, who, so Mr C said, has been discharged.)

Mr C. when I asked him for details of some of the streets, after we had talked generally of the district for about 15 minutes rather demeaned when he found what was wanted
but said we had better go & find his mission woman. This we did & then she gave me particulars of Townley Street. Mr C.
was ~~not~~ inclined to hurry this part of the business as he wanted to take me round so that I might see with my own eyes. However by interjecting questions at every pause & often without one, I got a fair picture of the street.

Then we sallied forth & passing out of Manchester Buildings, where the Mission
woman lived, came into East Street.

We then visited some of the courts, Had Street, Townley Street, Orb Street. Mr C.

had a joke for everyone he spoke to; even a woman, who was confined to her bed by a injured foot. All the places we visited were poor altho' there was often a neat appearance. Most of the people I saw were old and living alone; perhaps there may be a larger proportion of these people in South London as out-relief is more generally given.

The families were not extremely poor, probably the light blue type. One woman was making paper bags but tho' poor did not appear ill-fed.

Camden St. Poor like Townley Street.
