Fusion Doctrine in Five Steps: Lessons from Remote Warfare in Africa

This report by the Remote Warfare Programme's (RWP) Abigail Watson and Megan Karishoej-Pedersen discusses how the roll-out of the UK's new Fusion Doctrine can better address the problems facing Africa. The report highlights that while Fusion Doctrine may be well-suited to addressing crises, it struggles to bring key stakeholders together to build sustainable peace and security. It outlines five steps to make Fusion Doctrine work more effectively.

GIVING TUESDAY

Fundraising Update

3 December is 'Giving Tuesday', a global day to celebrate giving. To mark this, we would like to say a huge thanks to all our current and previous donors. We depend on the generosity of individuals, trusts, foundations and statutory funders to deliver our work. We would not have the impact we do on policy-makers and on the ground without this vital support.
