PROGRAMME CHIEF AT B.B.C.

Resigns Owing To Ill-Health

Col. Alan Dawnay has resigned his post as Controller of Programmes of the B.B.C. owing to ill health.

Colonel Dawnay, who was appointed in September, 1933, is now abroad on sick leave. The date on which his resignation will take effect will be decided on his return.

In a letter to Sir John Reith, Director-General of the B.B.C., he writes: "As you know, I have for some time been feeling the strain of my present work pretty severely.

IN FULL ACCORD

"This I believe is largely due to its sedentary character, and as the result of my recent illness I have now been strongly advised by my doctors that I should seek an early opportunity to return to the more active life to which I have hitherto been accustomed in the Army.

"In these circumstances I feel that it is best and in the interests of all concerned to face the situation now and to set a definite term to my work at the B.B.C.

"I have found the work of absorbing interest, and I have been in full agreement with the aims and policy of the Corporation."

While he has been away Major Gladstone Murray filled Colonel Dawnay's position as acting programme controller, and brought new rules into force for pruning "doubtful" matter in jokes and songs over the air.

COMMONS SCENE ON SHIPPING BILL

M.P. CALLS ANOTHER A "TOADY"

Mr. Runciman Refuses Pledge On Seamen's Wages

By Our Parliamentary Correspondent,
E. CLEPHAN PALMER

WE are getting on. Last Monday Mr. Buchanan bitterly attacked the Prime Minister.

Yesterday, Mr. Lunn, another Labour member, not to be outdone in the robustness of expression which seems to be developing in the House of Commons, applied the words "lickspittle" and "toady" to Mr. J. P. Dickie, the Simonite member for one of the Durham divisions.

He had annoyed Mr. Lunn, who represents Rothwell, by supporting the Shipping Bill, which hands over a subsidy of £2,000,000 to tramp shipowners, and by suggesting that opposition to the Bill came from people who knew nothing about shipping.

"OLD SHELLBACKS"

He referred particularly to "the two old shellbacks who represent the seaport towns of Wakefield and Swindon"—Mr. Greenwood and Dr. Addison, who had both opposed the Bill from the Labour Front Bench.

Incidentally Mr. Dickie, who worked for some years as an engineer on tramp steamers, remarked that he had been a workman in his time and supported the Bill because he considered it in the interests of the workers.

Mr. Lunn, who followed, did not dispute Mr. Dickie's knowledge of the sea, but added caustically that when they listened to men who claimed to be workmen, but "were at all times ready to become lickspittles and toadies to employers. . . ."

NO EXPLOSION

The expected explosion did not come. With the utmost dignity Mr. Dickie asked the Speaker whether "a personal reference of this character is within the bounds of Parliamentary practice?"

The Speaker: "I am not sure what it means." (Loud laughter.)

But at the end of the debate Mr. Dickie rose for a third time, with the light of battle in his eye, and appealed again to the Speaker.

He wished, he said, to ask to what extent personal abuse might be allowed to take the place of argument.

"I was placing my views before the House," he added, "with what I hoped was moderation and impartiality when I was referred to by the honourable member for Rothwell in the most offensive terms. The terms used were 'lickspittle' and 'toady.'

SPEAKER'S REPLY

"I have lived a man's life on a tramp steamer, and if those terms had been applied to me during that period my answer would have been a very different one."

The Speaker: I was under the impression that when the hon. member for Rothwell used those words he was not really serious, but that they were used in a rather amusing vein. I did not know he was applying them in a way derogatory to the hon. member.

Mr. Dickie: "I am sorry if I am suffering from a perverted sense of humour. If the hon. member will tell me that was the sense in which he wanted to apply the terms he used I will accept his explanation."

MR. RUNCIMAN REFUSES

Mr. Lunn declined to respond. "I have nothing further to say," he insisted. There, at last, the matter dropped.

The third reading of the Bill, which was commended to the House by Mr. Runciman (President of the Board of Trade) on the ground that there was no other way of fighting foreign shipping subsidies, was carried by 147 to 37.

Mr. Runciman said he regretted having to ask for the subsidy, and hoped that international agreement which would make it unnecessary would develop from the preparatory meeting of shipowners in London.

He was still unwilling to insert in the Bill any provisions to safeguard seamen's wages and conditions.

Mr. Greenwood refused, when challenged, to withdraw his allegations that there were "slums of the sea" as well as slums on land.

NOTTS CRICKET DEADLOCK

ATMOSPHERE "LESS FRIGID"

The conciliation committee consisting of three members of the resigning Notts cricket committee, three of the opposition and three intermediaries (Alderman Huntsman, Sir Robert Doncaster and Major Barber, chairman of the Notts County Council) will meet on Monday to discuss the procedure to be adopted when the committee's resignation takes effect at the annual meeting this month.

The impeached committee declines to deviate from its policy of unqualified adherence to the apology tendered for Voce's bowling against the Australians.

Despite the members' recent motion of "No confidence" there is no indication that the gap will be bridged, though the atmosphere is less frigid.

VITAL NEW MILK TEST IN THE SCHOOLS

TEACHERS' HELP FOR BOARD

WHICH IS BETTER —PASTEURISED OR RAW?

From Our Agricultural Correspondent

IN an effort to determine, once and for all, the relative nutritive merits of raw and pasteurised milk the Milk Marketing Board is to conduct large-scale experiments on schoolchildren in industrial areas.

Hundreds of children are to be divided into age and "condition" groups, and their weights, heights and other physical features tabulated.

Each group will then be halved and supplied with raw or pasteurised milk in graded quantities.

The children will be medically examined periodically — probably twice in six months—and teachers will also be asked to note any effect on the "brightness" and intelligence of the children.

So far, no disinterested experiments have been made on any conclusive scale on the nutritive constituents of raw and pasteurised milk. It has been no one's responsibility.

HOSPITALS' APPEAL

I understand that the Milk Board has agreed to meet shortly a deputation representing British hospitals, who are to ask for better terms.

Statistics are also being prepared by the hotel and catering interests to discover how much dried and condensed milk is being used for cooking.

The hotels and restaurants are in much the same position as the hospitals. They cannot get supplies at wholesale or semi-wholesale prices unless they undertake to consume a level quantity of several hundred gallons a day, year in, year out.

As a result many hospitals are having to be more sparing in their use of milk, and hotels and restaurants use dried milk freely, owing to its cheapness.

Yet the Milk Board complains that the quantity of milk "surplus" to liquid requirements is increasing, and that it has to be sold to milk manufacturers at an average price of only sixpence a gallon.

Dying Man Signs For Peace

ONE OF 250,000 LAST WEEK

A Peace Ballot canvasser called at a house to collect a voting paper.

A servant handed him a completed form bearing a "Yes" answer to all five questions, adding: "My master says that this is probably his last signature, but he gives it willingly in the cause of peace."

The paper was signed by a dying man

Over a quarter of a million people voted in the Peace Ballot last week—the biggest vote for any one week since the ballot was launched. This brings the total vote for the ballot to date up to 1,253,437 from 186 districts.

97 PER CENT. FOR LEAGUE

An official analysis of the figures shows:

| Question. | Yes. | % | No. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1. Should Great Britain support the League | 1,213,094 | 96.8 | 40,343 |
| 2. All-round disarmament | 1,156,562 | 93.1 | 85,875 |
| 3. Abolition of warplanes | 1,063,428 | 86.6 | 164,611 |
| 4. Prohibition of private arms traffic | 1,147,356 | 93.8 | 75,492 |
| 5a. Economic action against aggressor nation | 1,099,656 | 94.3 | 66,959 |
| 5b. Military action against aggressor nation | 670,944 | 70.5 | 280,055 |

The percentages on Question 5b, the most controversial of the list, show a steady rise of "Yes" answers. None of the other questions, except the third, has ever shown a lower percentage than 92 for the "Yes" answers.

ARCHDEACON GIBBS

Archdeacon Gibbs, who was archdeacon of St. Albans for 24 years, died at Hatfield yesterday, aged 78.

The fifth son of the first Lord Aldenham, who was a member of the famous banking family, he became Archdeacon of St. Albans in 1909.

From 1898 to 1909, while vicar of Aldenham, Dr. Gibbs was Rural Dean of Watford.

The Bishop of St. Albans once described him as "the best-known and best-loved individual in the diocese."

Dr. Gibbs resigned his post as Archdeacon of St. Albans in 1933 because of the state of his health. Just before Christmas he broke his leg.

CARRIED 224FT. ON CAR

A fine of £20, with disqualification from driving for 12 months, was imposed at Northampton yesterday on Harold Beech, salesman, of Northampton, for dangerous driving.

It was stated that he knocked down and killed a man whose body was carried 224ft. after the impact.

For dangerous driving and failing to stop after colliding with a taxicab, Nathan Beerman (30), of Steels Lane, Stepney, was at Old Street fined £35 and was disqualified for five years.

He had been fined three times for speeding and the magistrate said he ought not to be on the road.
