An old, compact district of Camberwell. Visitor hasn't been on here long - changed with Mr. Hunn.

There is a large workmaster's & large mineral water factory in the blocks, wh. employ a good many of the people, giving good work & fair wages.

An honest, industrious class.

Rector of St. George's, Camberwell, is an active worker here

Schools: Boundary Lane (Bd.) 3^d boys & girls; 2^d infants. Large. (1400). Westmoreland Rd. (Bd.), 4^d boys & girls; 3^d infants. Fee is too high, & militates against success of school.

Chubb's factory is here, & he built an imposing looking building, with coffee Palace & Russian Hall at the bottom, for his workpeople, but they won't live in it & it is nearly empty. Every room is quite separate & generally of a barrack like style. Common washrooms & w.c.s., also two cubs in the works. Night work 40 fam., but only about 6 fam. in it. Schools: Reddin's Rd. (Board) 2^d; St. Francis (R.C.), nominally 3^d.

There was a ragged school in Lower Park Rd. connected with Christ Ch., Old Kent Rd., which had been established for many years but is just closed for want of funds. Used to give the children dinners etc. in winter. (Rev. Thorpe, rector of Christ Ch.)
