Description of Street	A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H
Labouring class, poor. A low street; several prostitutes. Few mechanics but of indifferent character. Much drunkenness. Women work.	12	82	146	439	123	13
Something like Watson St but is deteriorating. Low class are coming in. Majority of labourers. There are some bad houses.	12	80	48	30
Most of these belong to shop-keepers. A few to lodgers, clerks. All comfortable.							4	20
All children of tradesmen or their managers. Comfortable class.							10	25
	12	128	240	247	477	137	58

This block forms a part of the most respectable district in Deptford. Majority of people are in regular work. There is not much change but the little there is is for the worse, the better class of inhabitants going to the newer houses on the Haberdasher's Estate.

Mr Davis has been on this ground for about 13 years. The J1 district is stationary and J2 being ^{nearly} all built, not much alteration is to be expected there. J1 is being developed now + may be expected to grow quickly. It is greatly superior to the other part of district.

Mr Wright is oldest visitor in Deptford. Has been there 47 years last May. Thinks district is deteriorating. This is due to the collapse of the iron ship building & the reduction of marine engineering; the comparative failure of the Foreign Cattle Market has intensified the irregularity of work. There is much migration but local in character.

Mr Armstrong has been on AA for 13 years; the district has not increased much within the last four years but there was a considerable amount of building before that time. The greater increase has been in R¹, which block Mr A has handed over to another visitor.

Most of the people on these blocks are connected with the Royal Arsenal & the population maintains its character. These residents do not shift much. Many own their houses, bought through building societies. Societies make great advances to the regular men

Mr B. has had this district 17 yrs.
The population has largely increased. At that time there were not more than 200 children in school; now there are over 2500.

When Mr B. first had this district, he had Sydenham, Forest Hill, Catford, South End & Lower Sydenham as well as Penge; his present district.

There were a large number of people came from London to Penge about 4 or 5 years ago as a result of the demolition of working & lower class dwellings for City improvement - e.g. a lot came from Bell Alley, Moorgate St to Aspley Road & Hughes Rd

Penge has deteriorated & the process still continues; the better class residents leaving - There were a 1000 better class houses empty in 1888.

General Notes

Mr Inglis has been on the district 17 years. The habits of the people have improved during the time. Ann St, Robert St, Down St & their neighbour contained many low families but now there is a marked improvement. The same people, engaged in the same occupations remain but their condition is better. There is not so much drunkenness and homes are in better condition. The house accommodation has not improved at the same time. Most of the people are dependent on the Royal Arsenal for employment, directly or indirectly.

Low Wages in Arsenal The labourers in the Control Department only get 18/- per week for 54 hours or about 4^d per hour. This branch was originally intended to provide employment for pensioners.
