Cober Hill Summer School

WHITSUNTIDE 1930

COBER HILL is a Guest House at Cloughton, on the cliffs six miles from Scarborough. It is not an hotel, but a country house run on simple lines. Its sunny, spacious rooms and beautiful gardens look out southward over the valley to Scarborough.

“SOME MAKERS OF MODERN HISTORY”

The course is designed to give an insight into the personalities and dominating motives of some of the Statesmen and groups of ordinary men and women who are to-day shaping the destinies of the world community. Definite periods have been set aside for free discussion.

Holiday Extension

For all who are able to stay for more than a week-end group has been arranged: the purpose of the group is to study in closer detail the work of the League of Nations, the International Labour Office and the League of Nations Union. Some of the discussions will be held in the gardens and on the cliffs, and there will be an excursion to Robin Hood's Bay, Scarborough, and a long motor trip over the moors to Whitby (cost about 6s.).
