Dearest Pippa

It is $1\frac{1}{2}$ min. to the post so a good time to select for letter writing - I feel rather bored not to have written before -

The above was begun two days ago & I now feel bored but no matter - Nothing of importance has occurred.

Marjorie went to Allenswood to-day Lytton departs on Saturday.

Miss Souvestre arrived on Sat.

last. She looks far from well. They were kept three days at Calais unable to start owing to the stress of weather. and without a stick of luggage. She brought me a delicious bag of sweets from Paris and a little book. The former I fear will have vanished ere your return. Mr. Horace Marshall called yesterday but I was out so he did not come in. I believe it was the exact anniversary of the Philippine but the tie is not yet ready by two inches.

I have not been to a single entertainment since you left.

It is too much of an urge to go out in this weather.

Two invitations have come for dances one at Mr. Freshfield's on Feb. 8th.

which I have accepted for both of us and for which you must be back. They also ask us to bring a gent. - Shall we ask Horace?

Ask Cousin Mennie if she knows the Bakers address. It has not yet been made all right & of course our blue book is a century old.

I don't think I can get up a reel party till your return so come soon. Has any one else
