

THE FORERUNNER
CHARLOTTE PERKINS GILMAN'S MAGAZINE
CHARLTON CO., 67 WALL ST., NEW YORK

A2/1749

Nov. 14, 1912.

International Suffrage Shop,
15 Adam St., Strand,
London, W. C. England.

Gentlemen:

We thank you for the suggestion that you should act as Mrs. Gilman's advance lecture agent for her foreign trip of 1913, and we feel sure that she will accept your offer. At present she is on an extended lecture tour in the West, and we are forwarding your letter to her. We presume that you will hear from her personally.

As per advertisement in The Forerunner: "Dates will be open in England during the first two weeks of June, 1913, and in Germany and Skandinavia after the International Suffrage Congress at Budapest."

We enclose one of Mrs. Gilman's lecture circulars, but as she never writes out her lectures, we cannot send you synopses, as requested.

In this country Mrs. Gilman's terms per lecture are usually $50 per lecture (sometimes $75) and expenses of traveling, etc. For Labor, Socialist and Suffrage Societies, for whom she is very glad to speak, she makes half-price rates. However, we do not know the scale of prices in England, and we would prefer to know these before recommending a hard and fast schedule.

Very truly yours,

THE CHARLTON COMPANY

Aimée C. Spurr