10th Feb. 1908.

Dear Mrs. Bentinck,

Thank you very much for yours of the 6th instant.

I wonder if you would care to write me an article for the "Socialist Review" on Socialism as seen through the eyes of a rich woman, explaining how you would have answered the question put to me. You need not sign your name to it if you ^{do} ~~did~~ not care to do so. What I would like would be an intimate explanation on the lines indicated in your letter.

I suppose you know that we are going to issue from the beginning of next month a monthly Socialist Review, and I am anxious to have all the many sides of Socialism represented in it.

With kindest regards

Yours very sincerely,

J. Ramsey Mueser
