Dearest Children

I was so pleased to see Daddy this afternoon & to hear all about you. It is such a comfort to me to know that you are all getting on so well. It makes it so much easier for me - as you are all & always in my thoughts. We hope I am not upsetting father's plans too much. The quarters of an hour that is allowed us is so short - the time had gone before we really start to talk

Just nice letters arrived last night. Will dear father tell Mr.
Corney that his sister sends her love to him - My cell is just opposite his - and we talk across to one another - and it makes me think of dear old Nottingham and my peanish boy at school.
I shall want two more towels a brush comb bag a mirror some letter a set's house another bodice if I can in my hurry for those - So may think of some more things I'll father to tell me how he is really getting on - I mean in the business I thought he sounded a little doubtful & depressed fondly darling kiss my precious little pup. - and give my love to Franklin. I'm so full -

Yours loving Mother

I want Mark to stop at Miss Keating's at the high school. don't forget.
How does Auntie feel about the other Franklin
He will tell you.
