Feb 28.

My dear Mrs Starvey.

Thank you most warmly for your ^{never failing} wonderful hospitality.

I came away refreshed in mind & body. It is really wonderful how you can manage to make us all feel happy, whether we be Belgians or inadequate temperance workers - or any of those who come to you from all lands & of all ways of thinking -

Anyhow I know that your way of thinking, & doing, does very much to make the world seem beautiful.

I thought the committee good, & was very sorry to leave -

Today I go to the "House" for a temperance conference & W. Wilson is coming back with me - I enjoyed the phone's best to me - My travelling companions were interesting & varied.

Some gay & some pathetic - I wish I had the power of writing -

Yours affately

Celia Robet
