Dear Mrs Lawcett

I have been given an original pen-and-
-ink drawing of Miss Emily Davies by Rudolf Schumann, and it had been suggested to me that it would be a good thing to present it to some

Women's Club or Institution where a collection of similar portraits of eminent women was being formed.

I thought you would be able to know whether such a collection was already in existence, and if not, whether you would think it a good place to start one at some Society

Centre, and if so I should have great pleasure in presenting the Drawing to it.

Your name was suggested to me as of one likely to initiate such a scheme.

With kindest regards

Yours truly
