My dear Mrs Harvey,

Mother bids me write & send her thanks to you for inviting her to spend the night with you; but she fears she will not be able to get to the Leeds com^{tee} at all. she feels paralysed with tiredness, & worn-out with the strain of her work in London these past weeks, on the licensing bill & the children in the bars & the W. Suffrage debate; it has all been very tense.

As to Dorothy, we expect her here tomorrow evening, & we do not know whether she will come home for Thursday night, or stay in Leeds with you as you kindly suggested. However you will be seeing her Thursday morning.

With very aff. greetings to you all,
Yrs. ever sincerely

Aurea Howard.

P.S. I am sorry that Mrs Williamson, whose name I gave to Miss Harvey when I met her in S. Leeds doing C.O.S. work, has occasionally got fits, so that ^{they} wrote I specially asked Mother whether she should come to the Guest House, & Mother thought it wiser not.
