To Miss McCroben

Dear Madam,

Mrs. McDiarmid
who is one of my oldest friends has asked me to write a line to you. In her election as a

Member of your
"Women's Institute"
She desires me to say that her object in joining you is purely social.
She wishes to join
in your debates and hear the lectures for which you arrange.
I am perfectly certain

that you will reap
the advantage of a
very valuable member and colleague.

Yours

Yours faithfully

C. Duford
