BUCKINGHAM PALACE

March 28 - 1916

My dear Lady Brassey

The Queen

commands me to tell you how pleased Her Majesty was with all she saw & heard yesterday. - She thought it

quite particularly interesting, & is so delighted that women can do this highly skilled work so well -

Do you mind telling me for Her Majesty's information, on a postcard or by telephone,

if it was Mrs or Miss Strachey who was with you yesterday?

Yours affectly
Bertha Dawkins

I have answered this - Thanked H. D. -

Told Miss Doves my other news - 2,000 tons from Irish seacab - some dogies from

Watson Center — my stationer — 2 paid 2. Watson's the bad for the bolt just now. I signed —

Slipider very nice about it.
