My dear Sister Annie

I enclose a mite to help out with the expenses of our dear sisters. I only wish I could spare more, but owing to some heavy money losses I have been obliged to curtail all my expenses, and the little I can spare for giving away is already so heavily mortgaged that I dare not further encroach upon it. — I think thy writing to Lady Henry would be more effectual than mine. Her present address is 16 Barton Court, Chelsea, S. W. but in a couple of weeks she leaves there for "The Hut," Birchington, Isle of Thanet, Kent.

It is possible that Mrs. J. H. Lile, 15 Russell Sq., London, W. C. might like to help. Also Miss Agnes Slack, and Miss Mary E. Phillips. Also perhaps, (tho' I do not know,) Mrs. Tom Mitchell. Also Mrs. Winbingham, The Abbey, Grimby and Miss B. Hankey, 24 The Beach

Walmers. Also Mrs. Drysdale, Silvermere, Princes Park, Liverpool. Also Mrs. Boden, The Friary, Derby.

I do not know whether any of these people have been particularly interested in the work of our dear sisters, and I have been so shut away from things that I do not know who has been; but suggest these names on the chance. I wish I could help thee more, dear sister Annie, but at least I can sympathize and I can pray. It is lovely of thee to be so interested in their welfare.

My lame arm warns me that I must close. Give my warm love to thy daughters

Most lovingly thy sister Hannah —
