June 17th, 1909.

Dear Miss Corbett,

I am instructed by the Executive Committee of the London Society to forward to you the following names of ladies whom they desire to nominate for election to the Executive Committee of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies.

Miss Costelloe, Iffley Court, Oxford.
Miss Sheepshanks, 1, Barton Street, Westminster.
Mrs Theodore Williams, 2 Upper Brook Street.

My Committee trust that as by an accident the customary intimation of the last date for sending in was not received by them in time, the enclosed nominations may still be accepted by your Committee.

The candidates' written consent to stand shall be forwarded to you without delay.

Yours truly,

A.S.
