HANTS.

Nov. 30th 1933.

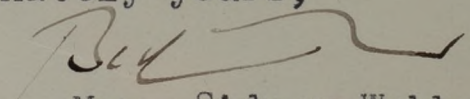

My dear Ruth,

Very many thanks for your letter and for your amusing account of Listoyel: I was afraid that marriage would not turn out to be one that would increase his proletarian sympathies, but he will remain a respectable member of the little group of Labour peers in the House of Lords.

I wish I could come up to London and have a talk with you. Perhaps I shall be able to do so after Christmas but I have not been very strong this autumn, though I am rapidly getting better and we are very hard at work on our book on Soviet Communism. What a success Litvinov has had during the last few months: he seems to be the only successful foreign secretary in the world at present.

With kindest remembrances from Sidney,

Affectionately yours,

Mrs. Sidney Webb.
