Dear Miss Hubbard

I send you my very imperfect contribution, ^{for work & leisure} written 6 years ago.
Since that, ideas regarding women's work have grown considerably,
still truth is eternal
and will bear keeping.

I am getting tonight
here, and greatly wish to fill up my 8 remaining beds, ^(I have 12) with young women of education.

who will stay three years certainly under my direction, in
the nursing work,
as Sisters in Hospitals or attendants in private houses -

If you could publish anything that would lead to right candidates, I should be very thankful - I will promise them a pleasant well managed

Home and good training in the Hospitals but I shall expect them to be really dependable in their characters -

In haste, I am
Dear Madam

Yours truly
