Mr. and Mrs. Miss Carpenter

I ought to have written several days, almost weeks ago to thank you for the Dying Child.
I do not know exactly when it can appear - but it shall be soon as possible - The same of the paper on Prayed Schools - I am glad that the public mind seems more turned to the subject.
I ~~wishes~~ return you the poem you had sent last - you will not take it unhindered I am sure - Before you send it elsewhere, Mrs. May, Currents cannot ^{you} correct the errors in the two second lines - This is a very small fault - ~~but~~ I am sure you can remove it.

You will receive the copy by Mr. Evans parcel next week.
I will, if you please return the reports of the 'Blind' Institution, as we wish to draw up a good article for the Journal, I have been waiting - but as yet in vain for more information from Dr. ^{W. May} for which I wrote to him - We hope also to get a memoir of Mr. Kelly from America. In a few weeks I hope we shall have a very interesting case of Henry C. Wright.

Our good friend Anderson is devoured by Lords & Ladies - it is his weakness to be flattered by all this - as you will see in his life which I hope you will read - Nobody under a load can get hold of him - I will humbly mention your kindness to him - I have another invitation from Dublin - I will send you an autograph - You shall have all your work - I will try if I cannot send them with the packets -

I am dear Miss Carpenter
Yours sincerely

Mary Stewart
