Dear Mr Fawcett

Many thanks
for your kind
notes - I don't rather wonder
why I had not heard from you
and am glad to find I was put in easy mistakes
of a number. I should have put

The name of the hotel or
the letter and
then it will have prevented
error as circumstances -

My progress at present - feel rather crab-like but I suppose that is
a usual effect
of the water
during the treatment
my head to expand the proboscis a little

during the treatment
and the bench
is feet afterwards
I have an idea
that - a long sea voyage is
the only thing
to count my strength if I could get well enough to think of such a thing -

I wonder what
Mr. H. Laren will make of this resolution -

The debt on the
address is concluded
before they do I do not see what can come before then
I suppose we shall have to do all
we can to support him - It seems strange to think that after all the delay, our fate may be decided to some.

I suppose that - I
he nurses on the 4th W. H. Laren will go on every well
all through the season
I will send regard to Agnes & myself I am
yours truly
John Baker
