My dear Miss Hubbard 1874?

We are only just come back from Cambridge and I must hasten to give you an account of my stewardship of the copies of the Labour News. The ladies to whom I spoke listened very kindly to what I had to say, and one or two to whom I read the letters, or who had had time to read them themselves between our meetings, expressed themselves as quite approving the plan. I gave copies myself

To Mrs Living (2)
Mrs Peile
Mrs Perowne
Miss Hobgood and Miss Challis.

Mrs Living is, I think, much interested in the scheme for the education of country girls ^{by correspondence} with professors & lecturers.

Mrs Peile looks after the education at Cambridge by attendance at Lectures. She knows you, or your name I think she said. She would like some more copies if you can spare them a some of No. 2. if it is re-printed.

Mrs Peile (3)
Trumpington
Cambridge

is her address. She was going to have a meeting of ladies the day I saw her, so it all fitted in nicely.

Mrs Perowne thinks she will take in the Labour News, & she promised to lay her copies (those I left) on the table of the Ladies' Reading Room. Miss Hobgood of Jesus College Lodge, is much interested in the Servants'

Home & also the Home for Probationer Nurses, of which Miss Wenslow is the head.

I called at Gorton & left a paper with a message for Miss Emily Davis, who was not at home unfortunately. I spoke to Miss Okes of King's Lodge & to Mr. Adams of the Observatory, but did not leave papers with them.

My friend Miss Challis promised to give what I left behind to some of the following ladies

Miss Clough

Mrs Adams

Mrs Pulling

Miss Hewelton

cont

Miss Julia Kennedy, and Mrs Birks.

Miss Clough is the head of the house where the ladies live who attend Cambridge Lectures,

Mrs Adams of the Observatory is interested in Gilton, or rather was in Witcham, which she thought a more fitting place.

Mrs Pulling is wife of the Master of Corpus Christi Coll.

I dare say you may know her by name. She was the daughter of a Mr Christopher Hodgson well known at L. R. Bounty or Reed's Commission, I forget which. She seems interested in many good works, and I was sorry to miss her, she kindly called yesterday when I was out. I do not know her personally.

Mrs Birks I do not know except by name, neither do I know Miss Kennedy, but I believe they are both very active people in different lines.

I shall be very glad to have more copies by me of anything you can spare, which I may distribute as occasion offers. I would send some

to Clifton to a Miss Alleque & ask her to mention the subject to Miss Winkworth, an active family of ladies of the name of Douglas, & others at Clifton to whom the information would be useful. In town I think

I could tell Lady Aberdare & Mrs Walter about the matter also the Bishop of Carlisle's daughters who might get it known in the north.

I suppose you will yourself send to Mrs Welby or the School of Art Needlework or I would send copies to her through my sister, if you like.

I hope you & your sister have enjoyed your sojourn in town as much as I did mine at Cambridge, an old home where I still feel more at home than in any other place. We must call to-morrow and learn how Mrs Kendal is, and where
: there we may see her for a few minutes. With kind regards & begging you always to use me in any thing in which I can help you

Believe me

Y^r very sincerely
C. E. Ollivant.
