PASSFIELD CORNER,
LIPHOOK,
HANTS.

10th November 1936.

My dear Ruth,

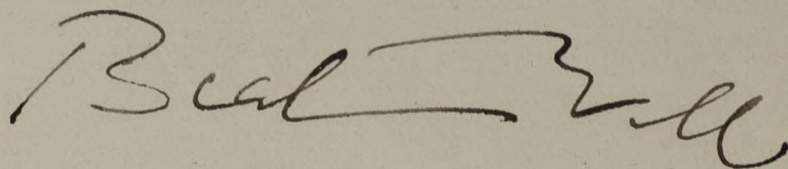

I was very much interested and amused by your letter, and I will certainly come to lunch with you on one of my expeditions to London, probably in December. I always like to hear your gossip about diplomatic circles. What you say about H.M. is amusing: perhaps he is destined to play the same part as the king in The Applecart. What a mess Mosley has made of his political career.

Sidney and I go quietly on doing little odd jobs, and seeing a miscellaneous lot of friends. But living in the country has the disadvantage that you do not see the outer world, and you never meet anyone who does not like you, and you like; which leads to self-complacency.

I am so glad that Mr. Cavendish Bentinck is so well at eighty. I shall be in my eightieth year in three months time. I think you are a good deal younger than I am?

With affectionate remembrances,

Always yours,

(Mrs. Sidney Webb)
