CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

NAME AND PREAMBLE.

1. This Council shall be called "THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN OF GREAT BRITAIN."
2. This Council is established in the interests of no one particular social, political or religious organisation. It has no power over the organisations which enter into affiliation with it.

ARTICLE II.

OBJECTS.

1. To promote sympathy of thought and purpose among the women of Great Britain.
2. To promote the social, civil, moral and religious welfare of the community.
3. To co-ordinate, both nationally and locally, organisations in harmony with these purposes.
4. To promote such conditions of life as will assure to every child an opportunity for full and free development.
5. To work for the removal of all disabilities of women, whether legal, economic or social.
6. To collect and re-distribute information of service to the community.
7. To form a link with the National Councils of Women in other countries through the International Council of Women.

ARTICLE III.

METHODS OF WORK.

The methods of work shall include :

1. Forming of Branches. (See Article IV).
2. Affiliating all organisations whose work is in harmony with the objects of the National Council. (See Article IV).
3. Forming standing Sectional Committees and Special Committees as may be required. (See Articles XVII and XVIII).
4. Convening conferences and meetings and conducting enquiries.
5. Submitting to the Government and to Parliament recommendations for the amendment of the law and its administration.
6. Representing the need for national and local reforms to the proper authorities.

ARTICLE IV.

MEMBERSHIP.

The members shall be women who are :

- (1) Members of the Branches.
- (2) Members of the Affiliated Societies.
- (3) Associate Members of the National Council.

(1) BRANCHES.

(a) The Branches consist of affiliated local societies and organisations and of individual members. They promote the work and objects of the National Council as local circumstances enable them to do.

(b) Branches shall pay an annual subscription to Headquarters of £5, and 25 per cent. of their ordinary membership subscriptions. The £5 shall not be compulsory until the third year after the formation of the Branch and the Central Executive Committee shall have power to remit the payment of £5 should the circumstances of a Branch require special consideration at any time.

Those Branches of the National Council of Women which have not paid their annual fee of £5 for two years shall have their representation on the Representative Council reduced, and notice of this shall be given at the close of the first year.

(2) AFFILIATED SOCIETIES.

Affiliated Societies are societies nationally organised or of national importance which are affiliated directly to the National Council. They shall subscribe at least £1. 1s. annually to the central funds, and not less than 5/- for each representative to which they are entitled on the Representative Council.

(3) ASSOCIATE MEMBERS.

The Associate Members of the National Council are women who subscribe not less than 5/- annually to the Central Funds.

ARTICLE V.

THE FINANCIAL YEAR.

The Financial Year of the National Council of Women shall date from 1st September to 31st August.

ARTICLE VI.

THE REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL.

1. The Governing Body of the National Council of Women shall be called the Representative Council.
2. The Representative Council shall consist of:
 - (a) The Honorary Officers.
 - (b) The Executive Committee. (Article XII, 3.)
 - (c) Representatives of the Branches. (Article XII, 1.)
 - (d) Representatives of the Affiliated Societies. (Article XII, 2.)
 - (e) Representatives of the Sectional Committees. (Article XII, 4.)

ARTICLE VII.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

1. The Executive Committee shall carry out the policy and transact the business of the Council.
2. The Executive Committee shall consist of:
 - (a) The President, Past Presidents (see Article X), and Honorary Officers.
 - (b) Twenty-four members nominated by members of the Representative Council and elected by ballot by a postal vote, the result to be announced at the annual meeting: of these twenty-four at least four shall be resident in Scotland and two in Wales. These members shall remain in office for two years; twelve shall retire annually, but be eligible for re-election, provided that they shall have attended at least two meetings in each year.
 - (c) One member elected by each Branch having a direct membership of 100 and over, and one member elected by each Regional Committee of the Branches.

A proxy may be elected by the Branch, to hold office for the same period as the elected representative, with power to attend and vote on receiving notification from the representative of her unavoidable absence.
 - (d) Sixteen members nominated by the Affiliated Societies, and elected by ballot by the Affiliated Societies, by a postal vote, the result to be announced at the Annual Meeting. Members remain in office for one year and are eligible for re-election, provided they have attended at least two meetings in the year.
 - (e) The Conveners, and the Hon. Secretaries who have held office for not less than one year, of the Sectional and Special Committees, ex-officio.
 - (f) Two members co-opted to represent the local Committee of the place where the Annual Council Meeting is to be held.
 - (g) Women Members of Parliament who, during their tenure of office, may be elected as Honorary Members of Executive, with power to vote.
3. The new Executive Committee shall come into office at the conclusion of the session of the Council at which it is elected.

ARTICLE VIII.

SECTIONAL COMMITTEES.

Sectional Committees shall be set up to further special branches of work, either by the Executive Committee, or at the request of six affiliated Societies if this be agreed to by the Executive Committee. They shall hold office for one year until their re-appointment by the new Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IX.

HONORARY OFFICERS.

1. The Honorary Officers of the National Council shall be a President, an Acting Vice-President, a Treasurer, and a Parliamentary Secretary; they shall be elected by postal ballot by the Representative Council, and shall retire annually but be eligible for re-election.
2. The President, Acting Vice-President, Hon. Treasurer, and Hon. Parliamentary Secretary, shall be ex-officio members of all Sectional and other Committees.
3. The President shall preside over the meetings of the Representative Council and the Executive Committee. Should she be unable to attend, the Acting Vice-President shall take her place.
4. The Acting Vice-President shall act on behalf of the President whenever necessary.
5. The Hon. Treasurer, in co-operation with the Finance Committee, shall organise the collection and supervise the expenditure of the funds, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee.
6. The Hon. Parliamentary Secretary, in co-operation with the Legislation Committee, shall conduct the parliamentary business. She shall not act in a similar capacity for any other organisation.

ARTICLE X.

VICE-PRESIDENTS.

Past Presidents shall be Vice-Presidents, and shall serve as ex-officio members of the Executive Committee, provided they shall have attended at least two meetings during the year preceding their term of office.

The founders of the National Union of Women Workers, the President and ex-Presidents of the International Council of Women, and any other women elected by the Representative Council, shall be honorary Vice-Presidents. These Vice-Presidents must be members of the National Council of Women at the time of their appointment.

ARTICLE XI.

MEETINGS.

(1) THE REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL.

- (a) The Representative Council shall hold an Annual Meeting to receive reports, transact business, and elect the Executive Committee, at a time and place to be arranged by the Executive Committee.
- (b) A Special Meeting of the Representative Council may be summoned by the Executive Committee, and shall be summoned by the President on the requisition of eight Branches and eight Affiliated Societies.
- (c) One-third of the members of the Representative Council shall form a quorum.

(2) THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

- (a) The Executive Committee shall meet monthly, except in August and January. Additional meetings may be summoned by the President.
- (b) Twenty-one shall form a quorum.

(3) SECTIONAL COMMITTEES.

(a) The Sectional Committees shall meet at least four times a year, before the meetings of the Executive Committee.

(b) Each Committee shall fix its own quorum, which shall not be less than seven.

ARTICLE XII.

BASIS OF REPRESENTATION UPON THE REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL.

1. Branches shall be represented in the proportion of one representative for every five of their local affiliated Societies, and of one representative for the first twenty-five and one representative for every succeeding fifty of their subscribing members.

2. Affiliated Societies shall be represented in proportion to their national importance and membership. Each Affiliated Society is entitled to one representative on the Representative Council, but this number may be increased at the discretion of the Executive Committee, subject to the approval of the Representative Council. No Society shall have more than ten representatives.

3. The members of the Executive Committee shall be ex-officio members of the Representative Council.

4. Sectional and Special Committees shall each be represented by two of their members, who shall be subscribing members of the National Council.

The period for which representatives are appointed shall be from one Annual Council Meeting to the next. In the event of any of the representatives resigning during the year, the societies may appoint others in their place, but no representatives can be accepted unless their appointment is notified to the Secretary of the Council not less than a fortnight before the meeting of the Representative Council.

ARTICLE XIII.
RESOLUTIONS.

1. Resolutions for the Representative Council shall be sent to the Secretary at a date to be fixed by the Executive Committee. Only one resolution may be sent in by any one Branch Society, or by the Scottish Standing Committee.

2. The Executive Committee shall have power to place resolutions upon the agenda in addition to the ten selected.

3. Each Branch, each Affiliated Society, and the Scottish Standing Committee, the Executive and the Sectional Committees shall select from the resolutions circulated the ten they prefer, and shall notify the ten resolutions thus chosen to the General Secretary of the N.C.W.

The ten resolutions receiving the highest total number of votes from Branches, Societies and Committees shall be printed on the Preliminary Agenda Paper.

4. Each Member of the Representative Council, each Secretary of a Branch, Affiliated Society, the Scottish Standing Committee, and of each Sectional Committee, shall receive not less than five weeks before a meeting of the Representative Council, a copy of the Preliminary Agenda, provided that in the case of Special Meetings the Executive Committee, if there is urgency, may reduce the notice to not less than ten days.

5. A Branch, Affiliated Society or the Scottish Standing Committee desiring to place in its name on the final Council Agenda any amendment to the resolutions, shall send a copy of such amendment to the Secretary in time to be received by her not less than four weeks before the Council Meeting. All such amendments shall be placed on the Council's Agenda. The Executive Committee shall have power to place amendments on the Council's agenda.

6. The Final Agenda shall be circulated to each member of the Representative Council, Secretary of a Branch, Affiliated Society and the Scottish Standing Committee, not less than fourteen days before the meeting of the Representative Council.

7. Urgency business must be sanctioned by the Executive Committee and must have the support of two-thirds of the members present at the Committee Meeting and voting. "Urgency" is interpreted as implying some important matter which has arisen since the date by which resolutions for the Council's agenda had to be received at the office, and which could not therefore have been dealt with in the ordinary way.

8. No matter shall be discussed at any meeting of the Representative Council which has not been included upon the agenda, unless specially sanctioned as urgency business.

9. A resolution to be carried by the Representative Council, must be passed by two-thirds of the members present and voting.

10. Resolutions passed by the Representative Council shall decide the policy of the Council until reversed or modified at a further meeting of the Council. Any members of Council shall have the right to require that the voting strength for and against be appended to the resolutions for all purposes of publication and use, e.g., in the public press and in communications to public departments and authorities.

11. Branches and Affiliated Societies shall not be considered responsible for the opinions of the Representative Council as expressed by resolution, unless and until they have themselves affirmed the resolution passed by the Council at a meeting. When resolutions passed by the Representative Council are published, a statement of the non-participation of any Society may be inserted.

ARTICLE XIV.
NOMINATIONS.

1. Members of the Representative Council have the right to nominate candidates for election to the Executive Committee. Nomination papers, giving the attendances of the Executive Committee members during the past year, shall be sent to the Secretaries of Branches, Affiliated Societies and Sectional Committees, and to the Members of the Executive Committee at least two months before the Annual Meeting, and shall be returned to the Secretary within five weeks of their receipt. The consent of those nominated shall be first obtained by the nominator, and no one shall be eligible who has not been a subscribing member of the National Council of Women for at least one year.

2. The Secretary shall forward to each member of the Representative Council and to each Secretary of a Branch, Affiliated Society, or Sectional Committee for their information, one month prior to the Annual Meeting, a complete list of the names and addresses of all nominees for election to the Executive Committee, with the names of three nominators in the case of new nominees.

3. The election shall be by ballot by a postal vote the result to be announced at the Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE XV.

STANDING ORDERS FOR THE REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL.

1. The meetings of the Representative Council shall open each day with silent prayer.

2. The Representative Council shall not transact business unless one-third of the members of the Representative Council are present.

3. Members of the Representative Council and Secretaries of Branches, Affiliated Societies and Sectional Committees shall receive notices, agenda and all papers relating to the business of the Representative Council.

4. Meetings of the Representative Council shall be open to the press unless the Council shall otherwise resolve. Copies of the resolutions carried at meetings of the Representative Council shall be sent to the press at the earliest possible moment after their receipt by the authorities to whom they are ordered to be sent.

5. Members desiring to speak shall send up their names, speak from the platform, and address the Chair. Short questions may be asked or points of order raised from the body of the meeting.

6. The ruling of the Chair, on a point of order, on the advisability of a personal explanation, or on the time limit, shall be final and shall not be open to discussion.

7. Amendments to resolutions may be moved at the meeting, provided that they do not determine questions outside the subject matter of the resolutions and that they arise out of the discussions at the Council and could not therefore have been previously circulated to the Branches, as specified in Sections 4, 5 and 7 of Article XIII.

8. An amendment may be moved :

- (1) To leave out words.
- (2) To leave out words and substitute or add others.
- (3) To insert or add words.

9. Every amendment shall be in writing, signed by the mover, and handed to the Chair.

10. No member shall, without permission from the Chair, address the Council more than once on any resolution or amendment ; the mover of an original motion may, however, reply, but she shall confine herself to answering the previous speakers and shall not introduce any new matter into the debate. After the reply, the question shall be put forthwith. The right of reply shall not extend to the mover of an amendment, which having been carried, has become the substantive resolution.

11. Any member desiring that discussion of a subject shall cease shall move : 'That the question be now put.' This shall be seconded without discussion and put to the meeting by the Chairman. If carried, the resolution under discussion will then immediately be put to the meeting.

12. Any member, whether she has spoken on the matter or not, may rise to a point of order, to ask a question, or in explanation ; such explanation shall be confined to some material part of her former speech, which may have been misunderstood. A member so rising shall be entitled to be heard forthwith.

13. Any member of the Representative Council shall have power to move at the Council Meeting that the order of the resolutions be altered.

14. A resolution or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the seconder and of the meeting, which shall be signified without debate ; and it shall not be competent for any member to speak upon it after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal unless such permission shall have been refused.

15. A member who has formally seconded an amendment can speak to it at a later stage.

16. Whenever an amendment upon an original motion has been moved and seconded, no second or subsequent amendment shall be moved until the first amendment shall have been disposed of, but any speaker to the amendment may give notice of a further amendment which she will move when the other shall have been disposed of. If an amendment be carried, the motion as amended shall become the substantive resolution, upon which any further amendment shall be moved.

17. A resolution to be carried by the Representative Council must be passed by two-thirds of the members present and voting.

18. The vote shall in the first place be taken by a show of voting cards or by members standing. A minority may demand a count and tellers shall be appointed at the meeting for the purpose.

ARTICLE XVI.

STANDING ORDERS FOR THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

1. The meetings of the Executive Committee shall open with silent prayer.
2. The Chairman shall not vote as a member of the Executive Committee but shall have a casting vote.
3. Minutes of the proceedings of every meeting shall be taken by the Secretary.
4. Members when speaking shall address the Chair.

5. The ruling of the Chair on a point of order, or on the advisability of a personal explanation, shall be final.

6. A resolution or amendment moved at the meeting shall be in writing, signed by the mover, and handed to the Chair.

7. A resolution or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the seconder and of the meeting, which shall be signified without debate ; and it shall not be competent for any member to speak upon it after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal, unless such permission shall have been refused.

8. Whenever an amendment upon an original motion has been moved and seconded, no second or subsequent amendment shall be moved until the first amendment shall have been disposed of, but any speaker to the amendment may give notice of a further amendment which she will move when the other has been disposed of. If an amendment be carried, the motion as amended shall become the substantive resolution, upon which any further amendment shall be moved.

9. A member wishing to have a subject placed upon the agenda must give at least 18 days' notice to the Secretary.

10. The Executive Committee shall arrange for meetings of the Representative Council. The Committee may arrange for submitting to the Council any urgency business or resolution, provided that two-thirds of the members of the Executive Committee present and voting support the motion that such business or resolution is urgent.

11. Notices of the meetings of the Executive Committee shall be forwarded to the Hon. Secretaries of the Sectional and other Committees. Those Hon. Secretaries who have held office for one year rank as full Members of Executive, while those who have held office for less than one year have the right to attend the meetings and to speak, but not to vote.

12. A resolution agreed to by the Executive Committee shall not be rescinded or altered by them, unless some member of the Executive Committee shall have given notice to the Secretary 18 days before the meeting of the Executive Committee of a motion to rescind or alter such resolution, which notice shall be forthwith entered on the agenda by the Secretary.

13. In taking public action with regard to subjects upon which the Representative Council has not defined its policy and upon which opinion is strongly divided, the Executive Committee shall only take action if notice of the proposal has been placed upon the agenda, which shall be circulated a fortnight before the meeting, and if such action has been approved by two-thirds of the members present and voting. Provided that in dealing with resolutions which Sectional Committees desire to bring before the Executive Committee, notice of the subjects of the proposed resolutions shall, if possible, be given in a supplementary agenda to be issued to members with the ordinary agenda. Copies in type, giving the actual wording of the proposed resolutions, shall also be given to each member of the Executive Committee at the meeting.

14. A resolution for the suspension of the Standing Orders shall require a two-thirds majority of those present and voting.

15. These Standing Orders can only be amended by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at a meeting of the Executive Committee, if notice of such amendment has appeared on the circulated agenda.

16. The Executive may make bye-laws for its own guidance.

ARTICLE XVII.

CONSTITUTION OF SECTIONAL COMMITTEES.

Sectional Committees shall be set up to further special branches of work, either at the decision of the Executive Committee or when requested by six Affiliated Societies and agreed to by the Executive Committee. They shall hold office for one year until their reappointment by the new Executive Committee.

In the formation of a new Sectional Committee the Executive Committee shall appoint its provisional convener.

1. Constitution. Each Sectional Committee shall consist of :

(a) One representative from each nationally organised society affiliated or not affiliated to the National Council of Women, which by reason of its objects is concerned with the subject with which the Sectional Committee deals. The Executive Committee shall be arbiter as to which societies are eligible for this representation and shall decide the degree of representation, having regard to the national importance of the societies concerned.

(b) One representative from each Branch and Regional Committee of the National Council of Women.

(c) One representative from each of such Sectional Committees as desire representation.

(d) The honorary officers of the National Council of Women, in addition to the Convener of the Sectional Committee.

(e) Not more than eight members co-opted by the Committee, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee.

NOTE.—The Public Service and Magistrates Sectional Committee shall in addition consist of women engaged in public work elected by the Committee.

The International Sectional Committee shall in addition consist of the representatives of the British National Council upon the Standing Committees of the International Council of Women.

2. Public Action. A Sectional Committee may take public action in its own name if it has obtained the consent of the Executive Committee. In cases of urgency, where the Sectional Committee has the support of two-thirds of the members present and voting upon a motion of which notice has been given, it may take public action if it has obtained the consent of the President.

ARTICLE XVIII.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

Special Committees shall be set up by the Executive Committee as required.

ARTICLE XIX.

The Executive Committee is empowered to give indemnity to any member or members in respect of any act done or liability assumed on behalf of the National Council of Women of Great Britain.

ARTICLE XX.

ALTERATION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

This constitution shall only be altered at the Annual Meeting of the Representative Council by an amendment to be carried by two-thirds of the members present and voting. Notice of any proposed alteration shall be sent in writing to the Executive Committee at such date previous to the Council Meeting as may be determined by the Executive Committee, and shall be printed and circulated to the members of the Representative Council.

STANDING ORDERS FOR SECTIONAL COMMITTEES.

Reappointment of Sectional Committees.—The members of each Sectional Committee shall be eligible for reappointment by the new Executive Committee. Nominations for each Committee must be sent to its Hon. Secretary.

The Hon. Secretary of the Committee shall forward to the Secretary of the N.C.W. a complete list of the names and addresses of the members standing for re-election and of the new nominees for submission to the new Executive Committee at its first Meeting.

Election of Officers.—Each Sectional Committee shall elect its Convener from among its own members; she shall act as Chairman and shall represent the Committee on the Executive.

A Convener who has not attended at least two meetings during the year shall be disqualified for nomination for the ensuing year.

Nominations for the Convener, whose consent to stand must first have been obtained by the nominator, shall be sent to the Hon. Secretary of the Committee not less than fourteen days before the Meeting of the Committee which immediately precedes the 21st May, or the posting of the nomination papers for the election of the Executive Committee. The Hon. Secretary shall place the names of the nominees upon the agenda paper, which shall be sent out to the members of the Committee. In the event of there being more than one nominee, the election shall be by ballot.

Each Sectional Committee shall at the same meeting appoint its own Hon. Secretary and other officers, who shall be subscribers to the funds of the N.C.W.

Each Sectional Committee may, at the discretion of the Convener, invite the attendance of experts on any given subject, and of visitors.

Meeting.—Each Sectional Committee shall, if possible, meet four times a year. The Hon. Secretary shall give at least seven days' notice of the Meetings, specifying the business to be transacted thereat.

The Convener and Hon. Secretary of each Sectional Committee shall have power, when necessary, to summon an Urgency Meeting. They shall state the business for which such a meeting is called, and no other business shall be considered at that meeting except by leave of the Committee given by a two-thirds majority.

Procedure.—Each Sectional Committee shall determine its method of procedure and fix its own quorum, which shall not be less than seven.

The Hon. Secretary of each Sectional Committee shall keep the minutes of the meetings.

A Sectional Committee desiring to form a special sub-committee shall obtain the consent of the Executive Committee.

Reports.—Each Sectional Committee shall present a Report of its proceedings to the Executive Committee. A copy of this Report shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the N.C.W. and filed at the office.

Each Sectional Committee shall present an Annual Report to the National Council of Women before the Annual Meeting. A copy of this report shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the N.C.W. for publication. The reception of such report shall not pledge the National Council to support any policy which may be advocated therein.

Connection with Branches.—A Sectional Committee shall not ask any Branch to take action in regard to any legislative measure without the consent of the Executive Committee.

In communicating with Branches, the Committee shall clearly state that such communication is sent by the Sectional Committee, and not by the Executive Committee.

Representation of Sectional Committees.—Each Sectional Committee shall appoint two representatives, who are subscribers to the Central Fund, to serve upon the Representative Council of Women.

The Convener of each Sectional Committee and the Hon. Secretary, after having served for one year, are ex-officio Members of the Executive Committee.

Ex-officio Members shall not stand for election to the Executive Committee. Each Sectional Committee shall appoint a representative to serve upon the Finance Committee of the N.C.W.

Finance.—The ordinary expenses of each Sectional Committee, i.e., postage, stationery, and any necessary printing, shall be defrayed out of the funds of the National Council of Women—£5 being the maximum sum per annum which can be expended. The Hon. Secretary of the Committee shall forward her statement of accounts to the Office quarterly.

BRANCHES, THEIR POWERS AND DUTIES.

1. Branches are composed of representatives of local Societies and organisations, the work of which is in harmony with the objects of the Council, and of individual subscribing members. They carry out the work of the Council in their own locality. Each Branch elects its own President, Secretary, and other officers.

2. Branches formulate their own rules, but must be prepared to assist the work and objects of the N.C.W. as local circumstances enable them to do.

3. Branches shall pay an annual subscription to the Central Fund of £5 and 25 per cent. of their ordinary membership subscriptions collected from individuals and societies.

4. Branches of 100 members and upwards, among whom shall be representatives of the various activities and organisations in the locality, shall have the right to elect their President, Secretary, or other member of their Committee, to serve on the Executive Committee of the N.C.W.

A Proxy may be elected by the Branch, to hold office for the same period as the elected representative, with power to attend the Executive Committee and vote on receiving notification from the representative of her unavoidable absence.

5. Branches shall have the right to appoint a representative to serve on each Sectional Committee, such appointment to be made in the month of November. In the event of the representative being unable to attend, a proxy may be appointed to attend in her place.

6. Branches shall be represented upon the Representative Council in the proportion of one for every five of their local Societies, and one for the first twenty-five and one for every succeeding fifty of their subscribing members. Should a member elected to serve on the Council resign during the year another may be elected in her place, but no representative shall be accepted unless her appointment has been notified to the Secretary of the National Council at least a fortnight before the Council Meeting.

7. A Branch may send in to the Executive Committee one resolution for the Representative Council. Such resolution shall be circulated to the Branches, Societies and Committees and the ten resolutions receiving the highest number of votes shall be placed on the agenda.

8. Branches shall not be considered responsible for the opinion of the Council as expressed by resolutions, unless and until they have themselves affirmed the resolution passed by the Council at a meeting of the Branch.

9. A Branch shall not approach a Government Department on any controversial matter upon which the Representative Council has not defined its policy, without first obtaining the consent of the Executive Committee.

10. Branches shall be notified through their Secretaries of all Meetings of the Representative Council.

11. Branches shall send short reports of their work for insertion in "Women in Council" from time to time, and their annual report to the General Secretary of the N.C.W. when issued.

N.B.—Members wishing to form a Branch are asked to communicate in the first instance with the General Secretary of the N.C.W.

REGIONAL COMMITTEES OF THE BRANCHES.

(formerly "Standing Committees.")

Objects.—To promote solidarity by keeping Branches in close touch with each other and with the work at Headquarters.

To survey areas, and endeavour to form and strengthen the Branches, and thus to further the work of the National Council of Women.

Constitution of Regional Committees.—Each Regional Committee shall consist of three voting members to represent each Branch in its area, one of whom shall be an Hon. Officer of the Branch.

Proxies, with power to vote, shall be appointed, who shall attend in the event of the unavoidable absence of any of the representatives.

The representatives shall hold office for one year and shall be eligible for re-election by their respective Branches.

Members of the Headquarters Executive, elected at the Annual Meeting of the Council, who live in the area of a Regional Committee, shall be ex-officio members of that Committee.

Each Regional Committee shall at its Annual Meeting elect a Convener and an Hon. Secretary. These officers shall be appointed in addition to the Branch Representatives.

Each Regional Committee shall have the right to elect a member to represent it on the Headquarters Executive Committee. Such representative shall hold office for one year, but be eligible for re-election.

The Hon. Secretary for Regional Committees shall be ex-officio a member of all Regional Committees.

No Branch shall be closed down before it has communicated with its Regional Committee, which shall notify Headquarters.

Meetings of Regional Committees.—Each Regional Committee shall hold at least two meetings during the year.

Special Meetings of the Regional Committee may be called by the Convener or at the request of two of the Branches forming the Committee.

The Minutes of each Regional Committee shall be circulated to its Branches, a copy being also sent to the Hon. Secretary for Regional Committees.

Finance.—Each Branch shall pay to the Regional Committee a sum to be decided upon by that Committee, to defray the expenses of printing, postage, etc.

Connection with Regional and Branch Representatives Sectional Committee.—The President acts as Convener of this Committee, with the help of the Acting Vice-President.

The Regional and Branch Representatives Sectional Committee shall act as liaison committee for the Regional Committees.

The Convener and Hon. Secretary of each Regional Committee, or their duly appointed proxies, shall serve on the Regional and Branch Representatives Sectional Committee.

The Hon. Secretary for Regional Committees shall be ex-officio a member of the Regional and Branch Representatives Sectional Committee, with power to vote.

AFFILIATED SOCIETIES, THEIR RELATION TO THE NATIONAL COUNCIL.

1. Affiliated Societies are entitled to appoint one representative on the Representative Council, but this representation may be increased to a number not exceeding ten at the discretion of the Executive Committee, subject to the approval of the Representative Council.

Should a member elected to serve on the Council resign during the year another may be elected in her place, but no representative shall be accepted unless her appointment has been notified to the Secretary of the National Council at least a fortnight before the Council Meeting.

An Affiliated Society has the right to appoint a representative to serve on the Sectional Committee dealing with its special work.

In the event of the representative being unable to attend a proxy may be appointed to attend in her place.

2. Affiliated Societies shall pay an annual subscription to the Central Funds of not less than £1. 1s. Should they be entitled to elect more than four Members of Council, an additional sum of 5s. is due on behalf of each additional member. Any Society which has not paid its subscription before the Annual Meeting of the National Council shall, after due notice, cease to be affiliated.

3. An Affiliated Society may send to the Executive Committee one resolution for the Representative Council. Such resolution shall be circulated to the Branches, Societies and Committees, and the ten resolutions receiving the highest number of votes shall be placed on the agenda.

4. Affiliated Societies incur no responsibility on account of any action taken either by the National Council of Women or by any other Affiliated Society, unless they have affirmed a resolution passed by the Council at a Meeting of the Society.

5. Affiliated Societies shall each receive through their Hon. Secretaries notice of all Meetings of the Representative Council and a free copy of the Handbook and of "Women in Council."

6. Affiliated Societies shall be entitled to display and sell their literature on one of the bookstalls at the Annual Meeting.

N.B.—Societies desiring to affiliate shall make application to the Executive Committee on a form to be obtained from the General Secretary.

39th ANNUAL REPORT, 1933-1934.

The past year has been one of very great activity throughout the Council and its many Branches and Affiliated Societies. It has also been marked by the Conference of the International Council of Women, which was held in Paris in July, and was attended by delegates from 27 different countries.

During the year the Council has been deprived of the valuable services of two former Presidents—Lady Trustram Eve (1931-1933) and Mrs. George Morgan (1923-1925).

Retirement of General Secretary.

The resignation in January of Miss Norah Green, General Secretary of the N.C.W. for thirty years, was received with very great regret. The Council is fortunate in still being able to draw upon her sympathy and wide knowledge of its activities as, at the request of the Executive Committee, she has agreed to place her unique experience at the disposal of Branches, and to assist in organising new ones.

In the Autumn a fund was opened in recognition of her services, and the response to this has amounted to £1,381 9s. 3d., out of which two annuities of £40 each have been purchased. The balance has been invested, and the interest will be paid to Miss Green during her lifetime and afterwards used as a Staff Pension Fund.

Office.

The work during the year has increased in volume and has taken the full-time services of four assistants. In January a more extensive system of filing was introduced, and is now working satisfactorily. Through the generosity of Mrs. Wragg, the General Secretary's room has been re-decorated.

The Assistant Treasurer's room has now been sub-let and the Committee Room has been hired on various occasions by the following societies:

Nationality of Married Women (Pass the Bill) Committee.

Council for the Representation of Women in the League of Nations.

United Women's Insurance Society.

Alliance of Honour.

Girls' Guildry.

London Social Credit Club.

More might be done, perhaps, to bring the advantages of the room to the notice of outside organisations.

Peace Meeting.

In view of the imminent meeting of the Disarmament Conference and the critical state of Europe in April, it was agreed by the Executive, on the proposal of Miss E. M. Eaton, that a mass meeting against War should be organised by the N.C.W. The President and the Acting Vice-President threw themselves wholeheartedly into the work, with Miss Sharples as Hon. Secretary, and were enthusiastically supported by Dame Elizabeth Cadbury and many other members of the Executive Committee and by the Affiliated Societies. This Mass Demonstration in support of the Disarmament Conference took place at the Central Hall, Westminster, on May 10th, and was a great success.

The Prime Minister sent a message setting forth the Government's policy. The speakers included Miss Winnifred Kydd, President of the N.C.W. of Canada and Canadian delegate to the Disarmament Conference (1932), Mr. Vernon Bartlett, Miss F. Horsbrugh, M.P., Miss Beatrice Forbes Robertson, Mr. Morgan Jones, M.P., Viscountess Astor, M.P., Mrs. Corbett Ashby and Madame Eidschenk-Patin. The following resolution was passed and forwarded to the members of the Disarmament Conference:

"This Meeting convened by the National Council of Women of Great Britain and supported by a large number of widely representative Societies, recognises that a fresh competition in armaments, with the inevitable suggestion of war, can only be averted by the conclusion of an international disarmament convention. This meeting therefore urges the Government at this critical moment to do all in its power at the forthcoming meeting of the Disarmament Conference to secure agreement upon such a Convention."

Work of Committees.

ARTS AND LETTERS.

The Committee has been fortunate enough to secure Mrs. Athole Hay (Silvia Baker) as an Arts Vice-Convener, and will now be kept more closely in touch with contemporary art movements. A panel of lecturers on subjects coming within the Committee's range has been drawn up for the use of Branches.

BRITISH COLONIES AND DEPENDENCIES.

This Committee, having as one of its objects the dissemination of information on measures and activities affecting women and children overseas, has considered the following subjects: the Education and Medical Services for Women in Kenya, the Training of Coloured Girls as Nurses, the Children's Ordinance for Ceylon, Life and Social Conditions in Cyprus, the work of the newly-formed Nyasaland Council of Women, and the Criminal Code for Palestine, summaries of which have been issued from time to time.

A letter was sent to the Secretary of State for the Colonies drawing his attention to the inadequate provisions made in the Children's Ordinance for Ceylon for the protection and education of adopted children and young persons.

The following resolution on Education in Kenya was sent to the Secretary of State for the Colonies:

"That while recognising the excellent work that is being done in Kenya by the Mission Schools for the education of both African boys and girls, this Council deplores the fact that there are thirty Government Schools for African boys and not a single Government School for African girls, and calls upon the Government to establish an adequate number of Schools for girls, so that the cultural development of both sexes may proceed side by side."

CINEMA.

Home Office Model Conditions. The Branches and affiliated Societies are helping in the enquiry conducted by the Joint Cinema Committee, and are pressing for complete adoption of the Model Conditions in all areas.

The need for closer co-operation between Cinema visiting rotas has been stressed, so that the experience and knowledge gained may help to bring about the production of a higher type of film. The Joint Cinema Committee has drawn up a simpler type of form for cinema visitors' reports, and this was circulated to Committee members in June.

In February a letter was sent to the Prime Minister pointing out that repeated requests of the Scottish Branches of the N.C.W. to the Scottish Office for legislation to bring methods in Scotland into line with the more highly organised systems in England and Wales had been without result, and that the following resolution had been passed by the Executive Committee:

"That the National Council of Women of Great Britain, including its Branches and Affiliated Societies, having consistently upheld the need for uniform administration of the Cinema Houses under the control of the Local Licensing Authorities throughout the country, deplores the Agreement recently concluded by the Scottish Office with the Scottish Section of the Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association, wholly without consultation with the Societies and Public interested, whereby it is left to the Trade to recommend to the Scottish Section of the Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association to "do their best" to secure "voluntary" adoption of certain conditions selected by them."

EDUCATION.

In September, 1933, Miss Faithfull's resignation as Convener was accepted with much regret, but the Committee was very fortunate in securing Miss Wolseley-Lewis as her successor.

This Committee has considered the proposal that Local Education Authorities should be compelled to expand their provision of free meals to necessitous children. Lectures have been given on "School Reports," "Why the Child Fails," and "The Teacher and the Dalton Plan," and, at the last meeting in July, Mrs. Wintringham spoke on "Nursery Schools," which is the subject of one of the resolutions to be discussed at the Council.

HOUSEHOLD SERVICE.

The resignation of the Hon. Treasurer, Miss Muncaster—to whose vision and knowledge of social science the Committee owes so much—was accepted with great regret. She leaves the Committee with a substantial balance in hand.

The Research Sub-committee has undertaken the preparation of a British paper for the Household Section of the Sixth International Congress of Scientific Management (July, 1935). The President is a member of the Congress Council, and members of the Research Sub-committee are included in the Women's Committee of the Congress.

The Committee was asked by the B.B.C. to co-operate in finding speakers for the autumn series of talks on "How I Keep House." Miss Randle has spoken on the work of the Committee and the Household Service League at several Branch meetings.

HOUSING.

This Committee, which had been in abeyance since April, 1928, was re-formed in February, 1934, with Mrs. Leonard Wragg as Convener. The Terms of Reference have been amended and enlarged, and are now as follows:

"To examine the general condition of housing in this country and to consider all housing problems with a view to improving the housing conditions of the people."

Several meetings have been held, at which the Housing Act has been discussed.

HUMANE TREATMENT OF ANIMALS COMMITTEE.

This Committee has continued its work of disseminating information and of obtaining support for Bills before Parliament for the suppression of cruelty to animals and for their general welfare, and has associated itself with the Cinema Committee on the question of animals appearing in films.

The I.C.W. Paris Conference (July, 1934) has adopted the N.C.W. resolution urging "the general adoption under an International Convention of measures which will prevent the destruction of sea-birds, fish and spawning grounds, by oil discharged from ships." The Council will be delighted to realise that at the League of Nations Assembly last month this subject of oil pollution was brought forward by Mr. G. H. Shakespeare, M.P., British delegate.

INDUSTRIAL COMMITTEE.

During the year the chief business of the Committee was to follow the progress of the Unemployment Bill and the Shops Bill through Parliament. The Government was urged to appoint women on two of the Committees set up under the former Bill.

Following an address by Miss Cowan on the Shops Bill, various recommendations were submitted to Parliament. The Night Work Convention was reported on frequently, and after discussion by the Executive Committee a resolution was sent to the Prime Minister, urging the Government to support the Proposal on the Agenda of the International Labour Conference to revise the Convention with a view to excluding the women in supervisory and managerial posts from the operation of the present Convention.

In Paris at the I.C.W. Conference the British Delegation took a leading part in the discussion on this Convention, Mrs. Abbott pointing out that by the new form of Standard Articles, denunciation of the Convention would be made more difficult, as it could only take place during one period of twelve months in every ten years. This was incorporated in the Resolution on the subject passed by the I.C.W.

MORAL WELFARE AND PUBLIC HEALTH AND CHILD WELFARE.

These Committees have continued to hold Joint meetings during the year. The main subjects discussed have been the Contraceptives Bill, Venereal Disease in relation to women and children, and the Departmental Report on Sterilisation. This last was of great interest to both Committees in view of their study of the subject in 1931-32, and of the pamphlet they then issued. A special meeting was called in February to report on the recommendations made by the Departmental Committee.

Addresses have also been given on "Milk for School Children" and "The Peckham Pioneer Health Centre."

Miss D. M. Retchford prepared an excellent report on "Women's Prisons," which was printed in WOMEN IN COUNCIL, for the I.C.W. Equal Moral Standard Committee, and Miss Susan Musson submitted a most interesting report on the treatment of children in prisons and remand homes. The Convener of the I.C.W. Equal Moral Standards Committee paid a warm tribute to the excellence of these two reports.

PARLIAMENTARY AND LEGISLATION COMMITTEE.

This Committee has held eight meetings, at which the following subjects have been discussed: Powers of Disinheritance Bill, Shops Bill, Contraceptives Bill, the Incitement to Disaffection Bill, Domestic Courts Bill, Betting Bill, South African Protectorates, and School Leaving Age.

Letters were sent to several large stores pointing out that members of the N.C.W. much appreciated seeing the seats provided for shop assistants in use. A resolution was also forwarded urging that the question should be discussed in the House of Lords.

Mrs. Johnson's Reports as the Parliamentary Secretary, which have included a number of selected Questions of special interest in the House, have been extraordinarily valuable.

PEACE AND INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Mr. Norman Bentwich described the "Situation in Palestine Today," Miss Freda White gave an address on the danger of the present freedom in the traffic in arms, and Miss Bertha Bracey gave some account of the work of the Friends Emergency Committee among the pacifists and others who have suffered for conscience sake in Germany.

The Committee is much indebted to Miss Orred for her work in collecting news from the Foreign Press, which is so specially interesting at this moment.

PRESS AND PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE.

Two meetings have been held during the year, the chief business being the consideration of a new form for WOMEN IN COUNCIL. It was decided that there should be eleven issues of the magazine, and one Conference number. The greatly improved form should make a strong appeal to the Council and to the general public, and it is hoped that increased sales and advertisements will result. The Conference Report this year will contain detailed accounts of all the discussions at the Council Sessions and Public Meetings, and an official reporter has been engaged.

The Council has also engaged the services of a publicity agent for the Edinburgh Conference, and extra publicity has already resulted.

PUBLIC SERVICE AND MAGISTRATES.

This Committee was asked to draw up a Memorandum on "The Enforcement of Fines," to be submitted to the Home Office Committee before which Mrs. Keynes and Mrs. Lyndon gave oral evidence. A Memorandum was also submitted to the Foreign Office Committee on "Women in the Diplomatic and Consular Services," and the President, Acting Vice-President and Mrs. Keynes attended as a Deputation to the Committee.

The Magistrates Sub-committee appointed to consider and report on the present method of appointing magistrates, with special reference to women, including the appointment of special magistrates to the Children's Courts and the constitution and personnel of Advisory Committee, has drawn up its Report, which will be considered in detail by the Executive Committee in November.

Mrs. Keynes also submitted a Report on Coroners' Duties and Coroners' Juries.

REGIONAL AND BRANCH REPRESENTATIVES COMMITTEE.

The new Branch formed at Chorley Wood last autumn has proved most successful and has already over 100 members.

The Branch at Colwyn Bay has been revived and is already vigorous.

The Honorary Officers have been very energetic in addressing Branch meetings, and this has proved a great stimulus.

The Branches now number 83, representing a membership of 14,880, with 1,207 local affiliated societies.

TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

This Committee has had various addresses, including one by Mr. Isaac Foote on the "Present Licensing Situation," Major Richard Rigg on "Palestine and Liquor Traffic," and the "Economic Value of Liquor," by Mr. G. B. Wilson.

WOMEN POLICE AND PATROLS COMMITTEE.

The chief business of this Committee has been the organising of a National Petition to present to the Prime Minister asking that the duties defined in the Women Police Regulations be made compulsory and that a Woman Inspector of Constabulary should be appointed at the Home Office to co-ordinate the work of the women employed in Police Forces, whether as constables or matrons.

The Petition was circulated in England and Wales by Miss Cowlin, and in Scotland by the Edinburgh and Glasgow Branches. The total number of signatures to the Petition was 6,249, which includes the signatures of officers of 42 County Federations of Women's Institutes representing 4,000 villages. It was supported by 22 of our Affiliated Societies. The great success of the Petition was due to the untiring energy and vast amount of work put into the scheme by the Convener and Hon. Secretary of the Women Police Committee, Miss Tancred and Miss Cowlin.

A deputation to present the Petition attended at the Home Office on July 23rd. Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland introduced the deputation, on which were representatives from practically all the supporting Societies, and it was received by Captain Crookshank, the Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State, in the absence of the Home Secretary and the Secretary of State for Scotland. The President, Mrs. Huxley of the National Federation of Women's Institutes, and

Mrs. Wintringham spoke, and Miss Tancred presented the Petition and summarised the signatures. The Under-Secretary expressed himself as impressed by the weight of public support contained in the petition, and undertook to report the representations of the deputation to the Home Secretary and the Secretary of State for Scotland.

Affiliated Societies.

There are now 137 Affiliated Societies. The Nursery School Association of Great Britain and the Society for the Ministry of Women have affiliated during the year, and the following societies have resigned: Metropolitan Public Gardens Association, National Health Society, Notting Dale Ladies Association, and the Church of England Women's Help Society.

The N.C.W. has taken an active part in supporting the two meetings organised by the Committee for Equal Pay for Equal Work, held in November, 1933, and March, 1934.

Mrs. A. F. W. Johnson also represented the N.C.W. on the Deputation which was organised by the Open Door Council to the General Purposes Committee of the L.C.C. in July, 1934, to ask for reconsideration of the policy of not employing married women. The Deputation was supported by 28 women's organisations. The County Council was not, however, prepared to hold out any hope at present of altering its policy.

At the request of the League of Nations Union, it was decided to support the scheme for obtaining a National Declaration on the League of Nations and Armaments. Literature giving particulars of the Declaration together with a covering letter from Lord Cecil were sent to all the Branches, and they were asked to help by placing their services at the disposal of the L.N.U.

International Council of Women.

The Triennial Conference of the I.C.W. was this year held in Paris from July 2nd to 12th, and was attended by 20 delegates and proxies from the National Council of Women of Great Britain under the leadership of its President, the Dowager Lady Nunburnholme. There were also delegations from 27 other countries, including, for the first time, an official observer from Turkey and a delegate from China. A very full week of meetings was held, including three Public Meetings, one of which had been presided over by Miss Matheson in conjunction with Mme. Brunschvicg, and another on "Slavery" by Dr. Ogilvie Gordon.

At the I.C.W. Fête which was held in connection with the meetings in Paris, the British Council presented a purse of £95 to the President of the I.C.W. in memory of the late Lady Trustram Eve, Treasurer of the I.C.W. and former President of the British Council.

Overseas Visitors.

The National Council of Women has been fortunate this year in being able to welcome at its meetings many representatives from overseas Councils, including Mrs. Benson of New Zealand, Mrs. Couchman of Australia, Miss Kydd and Mrs. Heather of Canada, Mrs. Heuston of South Africa, Miss Mary Jay of Sydney, and Mrs. M. E. White of Melbourne.

Birthday Honours List.

Birthday honours conferred by His Majesty the King were the following:

MRS. GEORGE CADBURY (D.B.E.)

Past President and Convener of the Peace and International
MISS D. CARTWRIGHT (C.B.E.) [Committee.

MRS. DAVIES (M.B.E.).

Members of the Public Service Committee.

MISS WINNIFRED KYDD (C.B.E.)

President of the N.C.W. of Canada; and

MRS. MOSS (C.B.E.)

President of the N.C.W. of Australia.

RESOLUTIONS

PASSED BY

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN,

EDINBURGH,

OCTOBER, 1934.

1. Sexual Offences Against Children.

"This Conference urges the Government to amend the legislation governing sexual offences against Children and Young Persons in the following respects:

1. That in cases involving sexual offence against children under thirteen years of age the offender shall, after conviction, be remanded for examination by specially qualified doctors and where abnormality is diagnosed, the Court shall have powers to order detention for treatment.

2. That in all cases involving children under thirteen years of age, where the offender has been frequently convicted of offences of this nature, even if only of a minor character, the Court shall have power to order detention for treatment and subsequent release on conditions to be determined by the Court."

Carried, 7 dissentients.

2. Control of Armaments.

"The National Council of Women urges the Government to introduce measures which will take the manufacture and sale of armaments out of private hands and place them under national control."

Carried : 257 for, 96 against.

3. Woman Assistant Commissioner of Prisons.

"The National Council of Women urges the early appointment of a Woman as Assistant Commissioner and Inspector of H.M. Prisons, to take part in the consideration of general Prison problems, including the recruitment and selection of the staffs of Prisons and Borstal Institutions, and the domestic side of all Prison Institutions, and, including also, special problems in connection with Women's Prisons and Women Prisoners, and that arrangements should be made between the appropriate departments for the services of the Woman Assistant Commissioner to be made available to assist the Prison Department of Scotland."

Carried unanimously.

4. Solicitation Laws.

"The National Council of Women notes that the Government has taken no action to carry into effect the recommendation made in 1928 by the Departmental Committee on Street Offences, namely, that the existing general and local legislations in England and Scotland relating to solicitation between the sexes should be repealed and replaced by a simple enactment of general application to persons of either sex.

The National Council of Women has at its Annual Conferences in 1917, 1925 and 1926 called upon the Government to repeal the existing Solicitation Laws and replace them by a law equal between the sexes, and, in 1930, the Conference unanimously reaffirmed this request, referring also to the perfunctory and unsatisfactory evidence upon which women are frequently convicted at present.

The National Council of Women now calls upon the Government to introduce and carry through all its stages without further delay the necessary legislation to provide a law dealing with solicitation between the sexes which shall be on an equal basis for men and women in regard to administration, evidence and penalties."

Carried, with 2 dissentients.

5. Reform of Matrimonial Law.

"This Council holds that, as divorce cannot now be obtained unless adultery (or, on the part of the husband, unnatural conduct) be proved, the present law both encourages immorality and leads to much individual hardship. This Council therefore urges the Government to review the law concerning the dissolution of marriage and at least to carry out the recommendation of the Majority Report of the Royal Commission on the Divorce Laws of 1912 or to support legislation such as has been twice passed by the House of Lords by which the grounds for divorce for both husband and wife shall include adultery, desertion after three years, persistent cruelty, habitual drunkenness, incurable insanity after five years confinement, or imprisonment under commuted death sentence. It further urges that all inequalities between men and women under matrimonial law be removed."

Carried.

(The Mothers' Union dis-associates itself from the passing of the above resolution.)

6. Traffic in Women.

"The National Council of Women, being deeply impressed by the facts disclosed in the Report of the League of Nations on Traffic in Women in the East, and being convinced that concerted action by the Governments concerned is necessary and urgent, welcomes the decision of the Assembly to seek the co-operation of those Governments in promoting the conference in the East under the auspices of the League.

It also notes with satisfaction that the Secretary-General of the League has been instructed to collect and report further information as to Russian refugees in the East who have become victims of the Traffic.

The National Council of Women calls on the Government :

- (1) To act on the recommendation of the fifth Commission, and to appoint a larger number of trained and experienced women officials to the staffs of the British Authorities concerned with this problem in the East.
- (2) To co-operate in the inquiry into the conditions of Russian victims of the traffic who may be in British possessions.
- (3) To promote discussion at the Conference of measures designed to stimulate interest and maintain co-operation between the various countries.

The National Council of Women recognises the importance of immediate preparatory steps on the part of Branches, Missions and all non-official organisations in the East in order that local public opinion may be aroused and instructed ; also, that all available information as to local conditions may be collected for the Conference, it recommends that Regional Preparatory Conferences be promoted throughout the East during the coming year."

Carried unanimously.

7. Report of Departmental Committee on Sterilisation.

"That the National Council of Women, having considered the Report of the Departmental Committee on Sterilisation, and being in general agreement with the recommendations therein, urge upon the Government the need for the introduction of a measure to legalise Voluntary Sterilisation in the three classes of cases specified by the Committee, viz. :

- (a) a person who is mentally defective or who has suffered from mental disorder.
- (b) a person who suffers from, or is believed to be a carrier of, a grave physical disability which has been shown to be transmissible.
- (c) a person who is believed to be likely to transmit mental disorder or defect. Carried : 339 for ; 99 against.

(The Mothers' Union dis-associates itself from the passing of the above resolution. The Edinburgh Branch and the Leeds Branch of the N.C.W. also wish to dis-associate themselves from the passing of the above resolution.)

8. Nursery Schools.

"The National Council of Women draws attention to the vital importance of care and nurture in promoting the all-round development of the pre-school child. It recognises that, because of the gap that exists between the infant welfare centre and the elementary schools, the health and general efficiency of a large number of children are impaired, with the consequence that many of them are unable properly to benefit from their subsequent education.

The National Council of Women therefore calls upon the Government (a) to remove the embargo upon new nursery schools in England and (b) to encourage Local Authorities to exercise their powers under Clause 19 of the Education Act of 1918 and under Clause 8 of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1918.

Recognising also the opportunity that now exists for comprehensive planning in new and reconditioned housing areas, the Council calls upon Local Authorities to take advantage of this opportunity by reserving sites for Nursery Schools in all such areas and/or providing Nursery Classes in existing schools."

Carried, 4 dissentients.

9. Juveniles in Unregulated Trades.

"The National Council of Women considers that the hours and conditions of all Young Persons in "unregulated trades" should be regulated by law, and urges H.M. Government to introduce legislation, as soon as possible, to regulate equally as between both sexes the hours and conditions of work of such juveniles."

Carried, with 7 dissentients.

10. Housing Estate Managers.

"This meeting of the National Council of Women considering that trained management for all working class properties is an essential urges the Government to take steps to ensure such management for all properties in receipt of national financial assistance, whether by way of subsidy or guarantee, and to emphasise particularly the desirability of employing women trained on the lines laid down by Octavia Hill in the management of all schemes for rehousing of tenants from slum areas."

Carried, with 3 dissentients.

11. Ascertainment of Mental Defectives.

"That the National Council of Women in Conference assembled, urges His Majesty's Government to require from Local Authorities strict compliance with their statutory duty to ascertain the number of mental defectives in their area, and to provide for them institutional accommodation, and other appropriate means for their adequate care and protection."

Carried unanimously.

12. Cinema Enquiry.

"Seeing that the Secretary of State for Scotland has been advised that Scottish Courts would be unlikely to follow English Court decisions under which the local control of cinema exhibitions is lawfully exercised by the cinema licensing authorities in England and Wales, and that the lack of uniformity reacts most seriously upon the maintenance of satisfactory public standards in this form of popular entertainment throughout the country, the National Council of Women makes urgent appeal to the Government to appoint a Departmental Committee of Enquiry into the whole question of legislation regarding the exhibition of cinematograph films, and matters relevant thereto, throughout Great Britain."

Carried unanimously.

13. Limitation of Armaments.

"The National Council of Women is convinced :

- (a) That only by maintaining and strengthening the collective system based on the Covenant of the League of Nations and the Briand-Kellogg Pact can war be averted and civilisation saved, and
- (b) That a general limitation of armaments by International agreement is absolutely essential to peace and economic recovery. It welcomes the action of the British Government in continuing to give wholehearted support to the League and urges it to persist in every endeavour to reach an International agreement, limiting the armaments of all nations.

Further,

- (c) The Council supports the following resolution passed by the International Council of Women in Paris : 'which welcomes the proposals for the drastic control of the manufacture and trade in arms recently adopted by the Committee for the Regulation of the Trade in and Manufacture of Arms and implements of War of the Disarmament Conference.'

It urges the acceptance of these proposals by H.M. Government so that they may be included in a general Disarmament Convention; the conclusion of which is indispensable, if the race in armaments is to be stopped."

Carried with 3 dissentients.

14. Maternal Mortality.

"That in view of the serious rate of maternal mortality and morbidity, it is desirable that more practical experience should be required of medical students and pupil midwives during their training in midwifery and that additional post-graduate courses should be arranged for doctors and midwives practising midwifery and all possible encouragement should be given to them to attend such courses periodically."

Carried, with 3 dissentients.

15. Supervision of Syphilitic Children.

"The National Council of Women, in Conference assembled, is impressed by the damage done to children suffering from congenital syphilis who, by reason of the neglect or refusal of consent by their parents or guardians, are deprived of the medical treatment necessary to prevent the onset of blindness, deafness, or mental deficiency.

"It welcomes the recent action of the Ministry of Health in issuing a circular to Local Authorities on this important subject, and urges its Branches to do all in their power to study the conditions existing in their area with a view to encouraging both the Ministry of Health for England, and the Department of Health for Scotland, to take such administrative action as will secure treatment for these children."

Carried unanimously

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION.

Article XIII, 1, shall read:

1. Resolutions for the Representative Council shall be sent to the Secretary at a date to be fixed by the Executive Committee. Only one resolution may be sent in by any one Branch, Society, or by the Scottish Standing Committee.

(This amendment to Rule 1 involves the insertion of the words "Scottish Standing Committee" in Article XIII, rules 3, 4, 5 and 6 in the appropriate places.)

TORQUAY, OCTOBER, 1933.

Disarmament Conference. (Urgency Resolution).

"This meeting of the National Council of Women expresses its earnest desire for the successful issue of the World Disarmament Conference and the conclusion of a Convention, recognising equality of status and embodying at least the following points:

- (1) An immediate beginning in reduction of armaments.
- (2) The abolition within a specified period of 'agressive' weapons, including the air weapon.
- (3) Limitation of expenditure.
- (4) A permanent organisation to exercise a strict supervision of existing armaments, including their manufacture and sale, and to prevent re-armament by any State."

1. Suppression of Traffic in Women.

"The National Council of Women, being of opinion that Traffic in Women and Children is always and in all circumstances a profoundly immoral and anti-social act, and that it should be punished even if the victims are over age and consenting parties, welcomes any progress which can be made towards removing the existing age limit of protection (21 years) from the existing International Conventions against the Traffic.

It therefore calls upon His Majesty's Government to support the Draft Protocol drawn up by the Advisory Committee of the League of Nations against Traffic in Women and Children at its last Session, which removes the age limit from the Conventions in all cases where the traffic is of an international character."

'It notes that the Protocol is limited to traffic from one 'to another country,' and urges His Majesty's Government to make a statement in support of the Protocol to the effect that those words are interpreted as meaning that 'traffickers will be punished also in cases where the victims are to be transferred from a mother country to her colonies, protectorates, mandates and, in so far as possible, all other territories under her suzerainty or sovereignty.'

Agreed Urgency Resolution.

"In view of the fact that the British Government signed at noon on October 11th the Convention on Traffic in Women of Full Age (thereby supplementing previous Conventions for Minors) all adherents thereto declaring International Traffic in Women of whatever age illegal, this Conference asks the British Government and the League of Nations to pursue their work of securing the elimination of licensed houses and the suppression of all Traffic in Women.

The N.C.W. desires to record that all Traffic in Women, both National and International, is at all times and in all circumstances profoundly immoral and anti-social."

2. Cinema Films.

"That the National Council of Women deplors the tendency in certain cinema films shown during the past year to present incidents depicting brutality and violence, in which the subjects apparently include cruelties inflicted upon human beings, or wild animals, or both.

They believe that the cumulative effect of such films continuously shown throughout the country is not only offensive to public feeling but must be harmful to the moral sense of the public, and particularly to those of impressionable mind.

They therefore urgently appeal to the British Board of Film Censors to exercise more stringently their powers of censorship in this direction."

3. Women Probation Officers.

"The National Council of Women urges the appointment of additional full time Women Probation Officers, qualified for this work through an approved course of training."

4. Juvenile Instruction Centres.

"That the Government be asked to introduce urgent measures to place an obligation on all young persons, from 14 to 18 years, not otherwise under instruction and on the Register for Employment, to attend, during periods of unemployment, some form of education, such as Juvenile Instruction Centres, the obligation to be generally similar to that laid on young persons between 16 and 18 who are in receipt of benefit under the Unemployment Insurance Acts."

5. Juries Amendment Bill.

"That the Government be urged to give facilities for the Juries Amendment Bill promoted by the N.C.W. and introduced into the House of Commons by Mr. Holford Knight and given a first reading on June 20th, 1933, or for a Bill on similar lines; the objects being primarily (1) the inclusion of a larger number of women in Jury Lists by means of a modification of the qualifications and (2) increased facilities for special exemption in hard cases for both men and women."

6. Remand Homes.

"The National Council of Women is of opinion that existing remand accommodation is inadequate, generally speaking, to meet the fresh needs which must arise under the Children and Young Persons Act, 1933. It considers that it would be unsatisfactory and extravagant for the majority of local authorities to attempt to provide suitable Homes for all purposes within their own areas.

The Council asks, therefore, that the Secretary of State should make use of his powers forthwith to review, through his Inspectors, all existing remand accommodation, and that all possible encouragement should be given to certain selected local authorities in County Boroughs to provide properly staffed and equipped Homes to meet the needs of a group of Juvenile Courts, and

That the Secretary of State for Scotland be asked to take similar and suitable action for Scotland."

7. Training of Nurses.

"That this Council is of opinion that in order to increase the number of suitable candidates for the nursing profession it should be made possible for pupils to take part of the preliminary State examination before leaving a secondary school, thus stimulating their interest and relieving the pressure of the first year in hospital."

8. Early Treatment Clinics.

"That the National Council of Women wishes to urge the importance of establishing Early Treatment Clinics for cases of nervous breakdown and incipient mental disorder, with a view to improving the mental health and stability of the community. Such clinics to be established either in connection with a general hospital or as part of the co-ordinated health scheme of the local authority, having due regard to the help that may be given by general practitioners."

9. Right of Married Women to Paid Work.

"That the National Council of Women has been watching with increasing anxiety the attack on the Married Woman's right to work, which may also be termed the right of the working and professional woman to marry, and records its opinion that regulations having the effect of dismissing women on marriage are unjust, uneconomic and contrary to the public interest."

10. Regulation of Office Conditions.

"That the National Council of Women of Great Britain urges upon His Majesty's Government that legislation be introduced for the regulation of office conditions in the matters of sanitary accommodation, cleanliness, light, and ventilation."

11. Working Hours of Shop Assistants.

"That this Council desires to support the unanimous recommendation of the Select Committee on Shop Assistants that the normal working hours of young persons employed in shops shall not exceed 48 a week.

Further it desires to support the Select Committee's recommendation that a statutory working week shall be instituted for all shop assistants, and urges that the term 'Shop Assistant' should be defined as in the recommendation of the Select Committee and that H.M. Government should introduce legislation to give effect to these recommendations."

12. Certification of Pregnant Mentally Defective Women.

"That in view of the fact that there is great difficulty in finding accommodation in certified institutions for pregnant mentally defective women, which leads to a refusal or neglect to certify this very important class of defectives, the National Council of Women asks the Board of Control to urge Local Authorities to make the necessary provision for such women in their areas without delay.

The Council further urges its Branches to institute an enquiry in their districts as to how far the certification or non-certification of these women is affected by lack of accommodation, and whether closer co-operation between the Mental Deficiency Committees and the Public Assistance Committees, together with a more systematic ascertainment, would remedy this difficulty."

13. Maternal Mortality.

"The National Council of Women considers that all possible action should be taken throughout the country to reduce further the rate of maternal mortality and to lessen the ratio of maternal morbidity. It urges all Branches and Affiliated Societies to persuade expectant mothers to avail themselves of the facilities for ante-natal treatment, and, later, of post-natal medical advice, where provided by their Local Authorities or otherwise, and to report to the Ministry of Health and to the Local Authority where facilities for either ante-natal or post-natal care are not available in their areas.

And this Council further requests His Majesty's Government to have the rate of maternal mortality in each locality printed in the Quarterly Return of the Registrar General."

14. Women Housing Estate Managers.

"That the National Council of Women of Great Britain recommend their local Branches to urge the extended use of Women Housing Estate Managers by all authorities dealing with the housing of the working classes."

15. Indian Women's Franchise.

"That the National Council of Women in Annual Council assembled, believing with the Simon Commission that India cannot reach the position to which it aspires in the world until its women play their due part as educated citizens, and having noted with satisfaction that His Majesty's Government has repeatedly expressed its sense of the importance of securing a substantial measure of enfranchisement for Indian women, calls on the Government and on Parliament to grant to Indian women a measure of voting strength at the very least equal to that recommended by the Indian Franchise Committee, namely, a ratio of one woman voter to four-and-a-half men voters."

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

1. Article VII. Election by Proportional Representation.

"To amend Clause 2 (b) and (d) by the omission of the words 'on the system of proportional representation' with regard to the election of the Executive Committee."

2. Article XIII. Resolutions.

"To amend Clause 3 by inserting 10, instead of 12, with reference to the number of resolutions selected by postal vote."

NOTE.—This would leave the Executive Committee free to place resolutions on the Agenda as at present, and it has been agreed that the words "in addition to the 10 selected" shall be added to Article XIII, 2, in order to make this point quite clear.

3. Article XIII. Amendments to Resolutions.

"To omit from Clause 9 the ruling that a two-thirds majority of those present and voting is required to carry an amendment."

4. Standing Orders for British Representatives on I.C.W. (see Handbook, 1934, p. 82).

"(1) To amend line 2 to read—"These shall be nominated and elected by ballot by a postal vote, the result to be announced at the Annual Meeting of the National Council of Women preceding the Triennial Meeting of the International Council of Women."

ORIGIN OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN.

The National Council has sprung from small beginnings as have many organisations which fulfil a need. In 1876 Miss Ellice Hopkins, during her strenuous efforts to educate public opinion on questions of morals, began, for the purposes of preventive and rescue work, to found Ladies' Associations for the Care of Friendless Girls. In 1889 a Conference of the Yorkshire Associations was held at Barnsley—the idea having been possibly taken from a very successful Conference, presided over by Lady Aberdeen the year before at Aberdeen. This Conference was arranged by Miss Gray and Miss Janes, until 1914 the organising secretary of the N.C.W, to whose untiring work and self-devotion the Council owes in great part its existence. Birmingham ladies, among whom were Mrs. Phillip, Mrs. Hallowes and Miss E. H. Cadbury, who were present at Barnsley, warmly took up the idea of such a meeting, and in 1890 the Birmingham Union of Women Workers, with Miss Stacey as its Secretary, held a well attended and most interesting Conference, when papers on various subjects connected with work amongst women and girls were read.

Meetings of the same sort followed in Liverpool, under Mrs. Alfred Booth, and in Bristol, Glasgow, and Leeds, under the presidency of Adeline, Duchess of Bedford. These were arranged by the local Unions of Women Workers. At some of these Conferences schemes for a more organised and formal body were suggested, notably by Miss Hubbard, whose staunch support did much for the Conferences. At the Nottingham Conference, held in October, 1895, the National Union of Women Workers (now known as the National Council of Women) was formally constituted, with Mrs. Creighton as its first President.

Miss Norah Green was appointed Secretary in January, 1904, and continued to hold office until her retirement as General Secretary in January, 1934.

A NATIONAL WORK.

THE CHALFONT COLONY for EPILEPTICS

(Established by the National Society for Epileptics.)

PATRON: HIS MAJESTY THE KING.

Many thousands of families, which might otherwise be happy and prosperous, are reduced to the extremity of misery and despair by the presence of an epileptic in their midst.

In the battle of life these families are placed at a hopeless disadvantage; for, even though the epileptic be a capable and industrious worker, the liability to fits prevents him (or her) from retaining any ordinary employment; and at the same time demands the constant care and attention of some capable relative who, but for this absorbing duty, might be a breadwinner.

In a poor household, destitute of proper safeguards and appliances, the life of an epileptic is full of dangers, and the strain upon all to whom he is dear is terrible and overpowering. He lives in a state of enforced idleness, which leads to mental and moral deterioration and to the serious aggravation of the disease.

At the Chalfont Colony, epileptic children are cared for and educated; while the adults are enabled, under proper supervision, to follow the avocations of ordinary life, engaging in industries of various kinds, and in healthy sports and recreations. The aim is to cure them, if possible, of their malady; and, when this is not possible, to enable them, in spite of their infirmity, to lead a useful and happy life.

Beautifully situated on the Chiltern Hills, on an estate of 357 acres, the Colony at present comprises nearly twenty Homes, accommodating 510 patients; but so great is the demand for admission that this accommodation is utterly inadequate to meet it, and FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED for the building of ADDITIONAL HOMES.

Bankers—MESSRS. HOARE & Co., 37, Fleet Street, E.C.4.

70% of the gas made in this country is bought by WOMEN

Realising this fact, the British Commercial Gas Association was founded in 1912 to help 800 Gas undertakings in this country to understand what women really need. It also undertakes to publish news of new developments in the gas industry for the benefit of women. The Association runs on a non-profit making basis for these two purposes.

It is interesting to note that partly as a result of the Association's policy, the gas Industry is employing an increasingly large number of women.

For literature on the Association's activities (including its work for Smoke Abatement) please write to the

“ THEY BUILDED BETTER THAN THEY KNEW ”

The Salvation Army was fortunate in its founding. William and Catherine Booth were twin souls, united in devotion to God and with vision to see what great things could be done in the lives of every living man and woman—God's way.

Alone at first and derided, these two laid the foundations of the Salvation Army. Though derision followed Catherine Booth even to her death bed, yet she died with the conviction that nothing could now hinder the spread of The Army round the earth. Her conviction has been justified, as the following figures help to show :

William Booth

“GO FOR SOULS AND GO
FOR THE WORST.”

	1890	1933/4
Commissioned Officers	9,427	26,266
Centres of Work	3,996	18,575
Countries Occupied	32	86
Social Institutions	85	1,516

What a great and sacred trust have the Salvationists of to-day under their new leader, the daughter of William and Catherine Booth, said to be the first woman in history to become the head of an international religious organisation. Remember them in your prayers.

Catherine Booth

1829—1890.

“YOU CANNOT IMPROVE THE
FUTURE WITHOUT DISTURBING
THE PRESENT.”

The Guardian of DEFENCELESS CHILDREN

Child cruelty and neglect in all parts are being checked by the Society's 263 "Children's Men." Throughout England, Wales and Ireland it seeks to ensure FAIR PLAY for those whose present happiness and future well-being are menaced by vicious or ignorant parents or guardians.

THE SOCIETY APPEALS TO ALL TO REMEMBER THIS NATIONAL WORK

Gifts gratefully received by Sir G. Wyatt Truscott, Bart., Hon. Treasurer, or Wm. J. Elliott, Director.

We have examined the Receipts and Payments Account for the year ended the 31st August, 1934, and the New Offices Fund Account for the period ended the 31st of August, 1934; also the Household Service League Account for the period 14th February to 31st August, 1934. There have been produced to us vouchers for the payments and we have compared the Subscriptions with the counterfoil receipts and found them in accordance therewith. We have verified the Investments and the Cash Balances. We have received all the information and explanations we have required, and in our opinion the above Balance Sheet sets out correctly the state of the Council's affairs.

EXTRACTS FROM THE CONSTITUTION AND STANDING ORDERS OF THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN.

The International Council of Women is a federation of National Councils or Unions of Women formed in various countries for the promotion of unity and mutual understanding between all associations of women working for the common welfare of the community. It was organised in 1888, and has as its motto the Golden Rule.

The following extracts from its Constitution are printed here as bearing on the inter-relations of the N.C.W. and the I.C.W.

ARTICLE II.—General Policy.

1. This International Council of Women is organised in the interests of no one particular propaganda, and excludes from its programme political and religious questions of a controversial nature affecting the inter-relationship of two or more countries.

2. This International Council of Women has no power over its members beyond that of suggestion and sympathy; therefore no National Council of Women voting to become a member of the International Council shall render itself liable to be interfered with in respect to its complete organic unity, independence, or method of work, or shall be committed to any principle or method of any other Council, or to any utterance or act of this International Council, beyond compliance with the terms of this Constitution, and harmonious action therewith. National Councils are at liberty to make any communications as individual Councils to one another, but propaganda to be officially circulated amongst the affiliated National Councils in the name of the International Council shall not deal with the subjects referred to in Paragraph 1.

ARTICLE IV.—Members.

1. Any National Council of Women formed of National Societies, of Local Councils, and Unions of representative Societies and Institutions, provided that their Constitution be in harmony with the basis of the Constitution of the International Council, may become a member of the International Council, with the approval of the Executive Committee, and by the payment of 20 dollars (£4) every year. National Councils whose annual fee has not been paid, shall thereby forfeit their right to vote at meetings of the Council and Executive Committee.*

3. Any person, whose name is accepted by the Executive Committee and approved by the Council of her own nation, where one exists, may become a life patron of this Council, upon the payment of £40 (200 dollars); or may become a triennial contributor on the payment of £3 (15 dollars) within the triennial period.

5. Any person approved by the Council of her own nation, where one exists, may become an Annual Subscriber to this Council on the payment of £1 or upwards.

6. All ordinary members of affiliated National Councils are also members of the International Council of Women, and shall be entitled to be present at the meetings of the International Council, but may not take part in the proceedings without special invitation from the Chair, nor have they a vote.

STANDING ORDERS FOR THE COUNCIL.

I.—MEETINGS.

9. Secretaries of affiliated National Councils are required to send an extract of the minute of Committee or Council appointing the delegates and their alternates (in the event of the inability of the delegates to attend) to the Headquarters Office a full month before the Triennial Council Meeting, supplying the names and addresses of the ladies appointed; also to provide each delegate or alternate with credentials.

10. The responsibility for the appointments and instruction of delegates rests solely with the bodies appointing, and delegates are required to act in strict accordance with the instructions of the affiliated National Councils which they represent, and on points which may incidentally arise, as far as they can judge, in accordance with the spirit of that organisation, and not as individuals.

Affiliated National Councils shall be free to give liberty to their delegates to vote according to their own convictions on any matter on which the National Councils consider they have not sufficient information, and where they feel that discussion might materially alter the point of view.

IV. STANDING ORDERS FOR THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEES.

1. The ordinary members of the Standing Committees shall be delegates appointed by the National Councils, each Council has the right to appoint a member to serve on each Standing Committee. These members shall be appointed at the beginning of each electoral period.

4. The Convener of a Standing Committee shall not be eligible to serve on that particular Committee as the member representing her own National Council.

V. STANDING ORDERS FOR INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL PUBLICATIONS.

1. All information regarding the business programme of the International Council, its Executive, its Committees, its Triennial, or other Meetings, shall first appear in official form (in the "Transactions," the "Annual Report," or in official or printed communications from the President's Office) before it is incorporated in the printed matter of any individual National Council.

*At the Council Meeting at Washington in 1925 it was agreed to accept the Finance Committee's estimate of £2,000 as the necessary sum required for the working of the Headquarters Office. The National Councils therefore agreed to allow themselves to be assessed in accordance with a scheme to be drawn up by the Finance Committee. This scheme was accepted by the Council at Vienna in 1930. Newly-formed National Councils shall, however, be only expected to pay an affiliation fee of £4 or 20 dollars a year for the first triennial period after their affiliation.

2. The Secretary of each affiliated National Council shall furnish the Headquarters Office of the International Council with an account, not previously published elsewhere, of the work carried on by the National Council of Women of her country during the foregoing year, such account not to exceed 1,500 words in length, to be written in any of the three official languages—French, German, or English—and to be in the hands of the Headquarters Office not later than April 30th in each year. All these National Council Reports shall be published together in the Annual Report of the International Council of Women.

STANDING ORDERS FOR BRITISH REPRESENTATIVES ON THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN.

ON THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN:

1. The N.C.W. is represented on the International Council of Women by 10 delegates (including its President) and 10 proxies. These shall be nominated and elected by ballot by a postal vote, the result to be announced at the Annual Meeting of the National Council of Women of Great Britain preceding the Triennial Meeting of the I.C.W. It shall be open to all members of Council to enter nominations for the 10 delegates and 10 proxies to serve on the International Council of Women. If a delegate after appointment be unavoidably prevented from serving, or resign office, the proxy with the highest number of votes shall be invited to replace her; in all cases proxies shall be called upon in order of their recorded votes. The term of office of the delegates is for 3 years. The term of office of proxies lasts during the time occupied by the Special Meeting which they are appointed to attend. Instructions as to future duties shall be made clear to delegates and proxies on their appointment.

2. The delegates from the National Council shall give a united vote, and the National Council, whenever possible, shall previously instruct its delegates as to the lines on which they shall vote.

3. The resolutions and amendments proposed by the National Council for the meeting of the I.C.W. shall be presented to and separately considered by the Executive Committee, and after approval sent to the Secretary of the I.C.W. to be placed upon its agenda.

4. In the case of unforeseen questions arising at the I.C.W. Council Meetings, the N.C.W. President or her proxy shall call together the delegates of Great Britain in Council, and shall decide with them on the casting of their vote.

ON THE INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

5. The N.C.W. is represented on the Executive Committee of the International Council of Women by its President.

ON THE INTERNATIONAL STANDING COMMITTEES:

6. The N.C.W. is represented on each Standing Committee of the I.C.W. by one Representative, appointed by the Executive Committee of the N.C.W. by nomination and ballot.

7. The Reports prepared by the Representatives for presentation to their several I.C.W. Standing Committees shall consist of statements of fact, not of expressions of personal opinion: they shall be as brief as is possible consistently with lucidity.

The Reports for the meetings of the I.C.W. shall be presented to, and individually considered by, the Executive Committee of the N.C.W.; if necessary a special session shall be called for the purpose, and after approval the reports shall be sent to the Conveners of the I.C.W. Standing Committees.

8. The Nominations of General Officers and Conveners of Standing Committees of the I.C.W. shall be considered by the Executive Committee as a separate item of business and shall be freely open to discussion or, if necessary, to a vote.
