

My dear Madam

The more than half dead for these four or five days past, the honour and happiness of seeing your grace has effected an entire restoration, at least a temporary one. I return your grace a thousand thousand thanks for allowing me the happiness of waiting on you and will do myself that honour about two o'clock, and will stay till three if I may be permitted to indulge myself so long. I hope all ~~the~~ dear young friends are well! I am impr-

Mrs. SIDDONS.
