Dear Miss Steadley

I am ashamed to have forgotten to send you my small subscription before now.
Hardly think I shall be in London for your annual meeting, though it is just possible I may have to go over next month on official business.

I hope your work goes on well.
I haven't much time now for any Committee work, or indeed any outside work of any kind, as the management of this gallery keeps me fully occupied.

I was appointed Curator here two years ago, and so far as I know am the only woman in such a position. The work is full of interest and very congenial to me.

With kind remembrances

Yours sincerely
Ellen Duncan.
