Dear Mrs Fawcett.

I crossed the Border on Saturday labr. I found the journey very exhausting, but my Dr thought I sh. do better in this air. I suppose I am better, but I resent my feeble condition of mind & body deeply!
I am writing today to much do us this grace.

I think he will, unless he is abroad, I heard some rumours before of lett. that his wife wd be ordered off, & then he wd probably go with her till Parliament meets if his work allowed.
We much hope it will not allow. I think Wym. ham wd be on new bed, unless we flew at the Peerage again, I think

"Suffrage" has many siccurs but warm friends on those red benches.

A Mrs Francis of Belfast has been writing to ask Min Balfour whether the Suffrage Soc. of Belfast, Oh. join a Min Cozens who has been demanding their alliance. Min B. refreshed her memory on Min Cozens yesterday, by asking me a fountain head about her! Yours sincerely
