Dear Mr. A.

We suffer incessantly from the Gramophone It has played from 8 AM this morning hymns tunes & carols now giving place to Harry Lauder. Groups sit or lie round it enjoying the hours their: & the pleasure of cigarettes & cakes & chestnuts is incomplete without it. For these reasons I like it better than any other present I have ever had.

We have just had a gratifying letter from Lord Fisher which I enclose as I think Mr. W. like to see it if you can remember to take it there only. next visit to Edinburgh. He came over to inspect Voluntary Hospitals.
We are all very well here are having quite an Easy trail.

We closed Claridge last week - much to our regret - & some of the boys went home & some are taking short leave holiday -

Lovely sunny cold day today with a big sea & spray wall over the breakwater on the harbour.

Must love to go all this

Dear Madam

Will you please accept my sincere thanks for your kindly sympathetic letter to me of the 24 ultimo informing me of the death of my Husband. A more comforting and consoling letter could not have written and it clearly shews that not only is your heart in your work but that you have a kindly feeling for the poor sufferers in consequence of the war. At the same time I must thank you from the bottom of my heart for the careful and devoted attention which you gave to my Husband and the attempts made to alleviate his sufferings May God bless you and the work of your corps in the noble and self-sacrificing work of which you have undertaken is the sincere prayer of Yours sincerely

CORRESPONDANCE

Nov. 10. 14.

I am longing for letters. None have reached me for 10 days & I am afraid that mine to you may also be delayed.
We are almost settled here now & very comfortable thanks to Annie & Liza. Very busy shoppers — L.K. D.G.
