Dear Mrs. Newham

I am so sorry to hear of yr illness, tell me the best time to come & see you & I will write by an Thursday to get round for a few minutes. I can hardly give an estimate for yr Poems without knowing the number &

binding fee &c.

Will you make my coming lecture known
among yr friends &
induce a little practical support there-of.

hoping you see for a letter that believe me your affections

Smilg faith yours.

I know of no such water, but will make enquiries for it.
