Dear Mr. Bentinck

We mustn't waste
your letter, which is frustrate. I have written it out for The New Statesman.

Will you please sign
it, either with your own name in full,
or with any
pseudonym you like,

and send it in the
enclosed envelope.

We badly want
some backing up
against Burns
iniquitous new
workhouse order.
We are sending out
to all the Trade Unions, to ask them to protest against it; but there ought to be more letters in the papers!

Wm. P. Webb
