My dear Mr. Trinnell,

I am very sorry I cannot accept your kind invitation to

W. S. meeting in Cardiff in April. I have as many speaking engagements as I can get through between now and Easter, and although

I feel that all Suffragists should stand together, yet I naturally realize that the National Union of which I am President has the first claim on me.

With best wishes

Believe me, pen very truly,

M. J. Fawcett
