Dear Miss Mulry

What an odious piece of tyranny, and how economic it do shape our ends!

But you have been wise to lie low until you have seen the P.M.G. and just your case, and that of the other 11,000. Unfortunately there is so little real rebellion among women! Look at all those organised Women living effects B. Montefiore Liberals sheep, 500 of whom are working in 'Mid Devon for C. Moder Buxton, because he says he is "in favour" of W.S.; when they ought altogether to refuse to play in the Liberal yard until the Liberal Leader makes W.S. a Government measure!

Thanks very much dear friend for writing me, as you do re. the year Book, case. I think if you refer to their published report of Int Congress, you will see that they do not say they were reporting on the Women's Conference, but on the Int.

Congress. My point is that I did not speak at that Congress, and as I was not on the Commission head anything had with wording of Resolution.

On referring to my notes, I don't think Burrows spoke in the W's Conference, except to propose that vote of sympathy with the Russian women. But he and Miss Kough were the ones who spoke in the Commission about the English measure.

What you wrote in reply seems to me very right and proper, and I am grateful to you for what you have done.
The affair is in my lawyer's hands, and I suppose I shall hear from him shortly.
I write what you say about paying propaganda, but I dare say, as you know, it's awfully difficult to get.
You are such a very good speaker that you must not be lost to the cause, even for a time. Why not if you don't succeed with the P.M.G. come right out? You are welcome here whenever you care to come. I want to start a Laundry (which is a very paying concern) worth 20 per cent of profits to go to suffrage work. We ought to get the washings of all the suffragists with you. Will you join us?
20?
