Dear Mr. Rowley,

I am coming to Liverpool in November ( <sup>in</sup> 11. th 12. & 13 th ) to a conference of women workers & it occurs to me that you may perhaps be able to give me a hearing at Ancoats on the following Sunday, the 15th.

12

I am stirred up & wrath by Cremer, Bolin & CV & also by Truth, The Times, the Speaker etc and their attitude on questions affecting women. I therefore should like if you are kind enough to provide me with an audience at Ancients to speak on the subject of women's suffrage; I would not propose to give a lecture, but to make a speech. What do you say?

I am very thankful to hear that Miss Atkinson appears likely to pull through her dangerous illness.

With kind regards to Mr Rowley & myself

Yours very truly

W. Fawcett
