My dear W<sup>rs</sup> Fawcett

Words cannot express what I felt when I received your kind
letter & the dressing gown. Nothing in all this time has gone
so to my heart as that

noble self sacrificing gift of love. It will have a high place
of honour in our family & my dear
husband will indeed
feel when he wears
it the appreciation
you have of the work
he has done
I feel I must tell you how I honoured & loved

your noble husband
Once when I went to the Gallery of the House of Commons I
saw him, when I
came home I said I felt it the greatest privilege I could have had, I told my children then what a splendid man he
was. I showed the 2 boys the dressing gowns. They said will not Father be proud

to wear it"

I am going to Holloway on Friday & will take it I will try & call
as I return but do
not stay in for me
for I know your time
is so occupied

I saw my husband yesterday he was so well & happy Yours with feelings of deep appreciation & regard E. B. Stead
