SHEPPARDS

OUTWOOD

June 21st 1954 SURREY
to Mrs. [unclear]

Dear Mrs. Horton

I do apologise for my apparent reluctance to not answering your invitation to attend the unveiling of the plaque to Dame Millicent Fawcett.

I wish so much I could have been present, for I be thanked so very high in my admiration & affection.

Her kindness to me & her understanding when I saw I was asked to make a cheque in to the Social Section of the League of Nations and doubted my capacity for so big a task, was a great strength to a young woman and something I shall never forget, although it is 35 years ago.

Yours sincerely

Pauline C. Crowdy-Thornhill
