WESTMINSTER EMBANKMENT.

Dear Mr. Carew and Bentinck

It was kind of you to think of sending me a birthday present, and such a charming little book. I have already read some of it; and Mr. Webb has done so likewise, with appreciation.

We don't "keep" birthdays, so it was the only present I received.

I was very pleased to have the chance of meeting you at Kendalls Hall, or so pleasant a Sunday.

Yours truly,
Fanny Webb
