Dearest - Amy,

Agnes and I send you our warm & loving thanks for our welcome greeting both by telegram and letter. We have had a most delightful and interesting time. Palestine surpasses all we had expected in the way of interest & beauty. We shall try to tell you as much about it as we can when we meet; but the subject is really too vast for a letter. We are very much interested too dear Amy in your important news about your dear boy's engagement. I always think it is a very good thing, especially for men, to marry young and we feel sure from what you say of Marie's character that there is every prospect of a happy future for our two dear young people. Please hand us letters both our loving congratulations. We are rather afraid that the University Experimental Farm at Aldbury is not so famous as the Red House Farm. My brother George also has
