Dear Mrs Faucell,

The Governor of the Gaol informs me that you have been so kind as to write him asking if you & Mrs Faucell may do me the great honour of coming to see me here.

Ed Melman tells me that he has returned you the usual official reply, and asks me to convey to you as if from myself the fact that in the opinion of the Visiting Committee no one who is in any way identified with the Agitation should be permitted to visit the First Class Mendementaux room in Holloway Gaol. The holy horror which the concluded authors have of a glad these anxious desire that I should now let it drop & devote my attention to other matters is very touching & very reassuring however much it may for the moment bead to restrict the pleasure which I should have had from the visits of my fellow workers.

Pray do not misunderstand me when I say that situated as I am at present, I cannot feel for indulgences beyond those conceded me by the Working Committee I feel indeed somewhat guilty in being treated so leniently, when poor Rebecca is in Millbank. But that I cannot help.

Thanking you Mrs. Farrell very sincerely for the favour which you proposed to do me & promising myself that pleasure at an early day after January 18.

I have the honour to be

Yours respectfully
