PASSFIELD CORNER,
LIPHOOK,
HANTS.

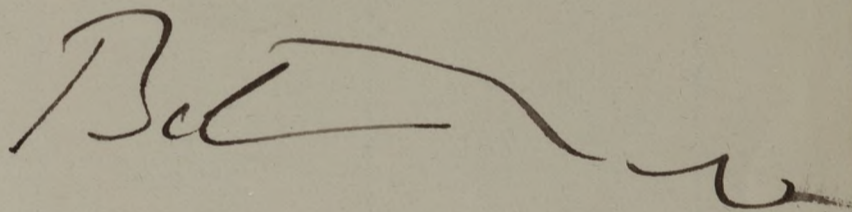

12th January 1937.

My dear Ruth,

I have sent your letter about the Tribune on to Stafford, as I think it may be useful to him. The paper seems quite bright and amusing. I wish the print were better for my aged eyes.

I so much enjoyed my lunch with you. Sometime later in the year, when the weather is warmer, you must come and spend a night here.

Always yours,

(Mrs. Sidney Webb)
