My good friend Charles I read your kind letter and return you many thanks for the offer you make me, but I am determined to remain here some time, and perhaps, I may return to Milan, to settle my affairs, I live in hopes of peace in that case, I may go to England for a short time but I fear not to settle I beg my best wishes to my dear little friend I hope she is well, my health is much better since my great illness, I never go into the world nor to the theatre but live almost alone if you should not receive a letter from me by the end of next month, I beg you ^{will} send Mrs Gorge fifty pounds, for which she will send you a receipt and I will pay you in October, for I cannot arrange that otherways, and I well know your friendship for me I fear I shall not be able to write to you again, god bless you believe me ever your

Sincere friend
